Part One: How I Became Involved in the Case of the Missing Idaho Children

The best proof I have to offer of the afterlife is my psychic readings on the case of the missing Idaho children, Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow. The date stamp assigned by youtube proves the validity of my claims beyond any skeptical doubt. There is no requirement to trust what I am saying. The proof is verifiable and tangible. The date of upload assigned by Youtube appears under the title of each upload. I did these readings in front of an audience of thousands. (1)

I began this series of eight psychic readings in the four months before the remains of the children were recovered. The readings were so detailed and made such outrageous claims that talk of them spread like wildfire. These readings on YouTube have a combined total of approximately three hundred thousand views.

The proof is in the dozens of very complex claims that I made in the four months before law enforcement recovered the remains of the children. The fact that Youtube assigns a date means that a total stranger can look at them and know beyond any reasonable doubt that the spirit world, and hence, the afterlife is real. It would have been impossible to guess the detailed descriptions I gave in these uploaded readings.

There are hundreds of comments under each reading from skeptics turned believers. In the final part of this essay, I have included some letters from total atheists or skeptics who now believe in the afterlife because of my spirit communication readings on the case of the missing Idaho kids, Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow. I did not know any of these people before my work on the Idaho case.

During these readings, I repeatedly stated that I was interacting with the spirit people who were victims of Lori Vallow and Chad Daybell. I go into great detail about the personalities that they are projecting to me. Once I realized that the general public was listening to my readings, I consistently explained how mediumship works to help them understand and interpret the information themselves.

I became involved with the case on January 31, 2020. On June 09, 2020, the remains of the children were recovered by law enforcement on the property of Chad Daybell. Most of the statements I made during the readings have already been confirmed. Thousands of people were witness to this. Their comments underneath each reading verify this fact.

After the first reading, I searched the internet for where to send the information. I found that this case involved multiple agencies in multiple states. I have worked on many other unsolved murders. Usually, I would not upload these types of readings for safety reasons. I decided to upload the first reading because there were multiple jurisdictions and states involved. Typically, there are a lot of obstacles to finding the right detective to listen to a psychic. I decided to upload the reading to YouTube. I figured the right person would hear it. I wrote an extensive, detailed letter to law enforcement on January 31, 2020, after I uploaded the reading. I sent that to multiple law enforcement agencies in Hawaii, Arizona and Idaho. I also uploaded the first email to the FBI tip line online forms. I figured it would reach the right person. Screenshots of that email are attached at the end of this essay after the citations.

When I became involved, most people thought the children were alive. People speculated they were with prepper friends because of a child custody dispute. Both Chad Daybell and Lori Vallow were members of their respective churches. Chad Daybell was a popular author of a series of books on the end times. Chad was part of an LDS prepper group. He regularly spoke at related events. Both were in good standing at church and among their friends. I sent letters and copies of each reading to Chad's friends but none of them could believe he would have any part in a crime. Lori's friends and family also did not believe that she would take part in harming her children. Unfortunately, I knew differently.

I became involved in this case without intending to do so. On January 31, 2020, I turned on my computer. The home screen had a missing children poster. There were two children in this poster: a teenage girl and a seven-year-old boy. As I looked at my computer screen, I locked eyes with the adolescent girl. Her name was Tylee Ryan.

Just then, I felt my deceased daughter Nicole manifest at my right side. My daughter and I had been doing mediumship together since she passed from her physical body in 2011. I could feel Nicole as firmly as if she was standing next to me in her physical form. The air beside me rippled with what appeared as if champagne bubbles were in the air floating upward. I stopped what I was doing and stood up to be at face level with my daughter.

"Hello Nicole," I said. Nicole gestured off to her side, and I saw the translucent form of a smaller teenage spirit girl standing a couple of feet back and to the side. Nicole communicated to me that this girl's mother had murdered her. I looked to the girl, whom I recognized as the one seen in the missing poster. "No," I said. I could not believe it. Mothers do not murder their daughters.

I looked at the girl. She confirmed to me that her mother had murdered her. "It cannot be", I thought. I looked at my daughter again in disbelief. Nicole confirmed that her mother had murdered her, and she brought her to me for my ability to help. Tylee Ryan was not the first murder victim Nicole had brought to me. She seemed to do this about once a year.

It was only because of my daughter Nicole that I had allowed this connection with a spirit person I had not called on my own. Trickster spirits do exist. They may even want to be genuinely helpful. The information they give may not be accurate. I usually only do these types of readings if I have the first reading with a family or friend to confirm that I have the correct spirit. After I have connected with a spirit I can recognize their energy again, just as you would recognize the physical features of a person in the physical world.

I spent a few minutes in prayer and meditation, and then I invited this teenage girl to tell me her story. The story of Tylee Ryan is so shocking that I even had a hard time believing it. What I saw and felt was so horrific that I stopped the reading in the middle and began praying. It is all on the unedited recording uploaded to you tube. I have never quit a reading in the middle like that. I had a hard time believing that somebody would do the things I was seeing. When I started the reading back up, they were even more insistent and detailed in showing me what had happened. I could not believe what I was seeing. It was over the top. I could not think anybody would do this to their children.

The first step for my mediumship is linking with the spirit. When the link is strong, the information is relayed telepathically. During any given reading, I may move in and out of deeper trance states. If I am interrupted, I may move back into the psychic level. If I am lying in bed, I may get into a deep enough trance to lose all awareness of my body. It is in this deeper state where I may feel that I am walking around the scene. If I do repeated readings, I can pick up more detailed information with each reading. In the case of an unsolved crime, this allows me to move about the scene and look for evidence.

I have connected with spirits from a very young age, and it has always seemed normal. I never really cared about these abilities until the death of my daughter Nicole in 2011. I decided to spend the rest of my physical life proving to others that the spirit world is real. I made a personal commitment to explore what lies beyond our physical life.

I began attending workshops led by some of the world's most renowned mediums. I started attending the activities of the four spiritualist churches in my county. After I witnessed a transfiguration of my brother's face over a man that looked nothing like him, I blocked off my calendar and attended large séances once a week for three straight years. I began developing my abilities to their full potential. I took steps at all four churches towards becoming a spiritualist reverend. I was doing this because I loved the activities so much. When I was asked to become a reverend at one of the churches, I accepted. This is generally a four-year training program. I enjoy bringing messages from spirit to people who visit the spiritualist church.

In 2014 I started facilitating weekly mediumship development circles in my home. I did this with the direction from spirit. These are heavily controlled circles (séances) that I lead with the direction of Spirits. I continued these circles until the covid lockdowns in 2020 forced me to stop. I have most of these circles recorded. I was inspired by a documentary about a group of spiritualists who met weekly and the scientists who studied them.

In 2018 I wrote my first book, "Motherhood to Mediumship." I hoped to show people an alternative to traditional grieving. It is a book of short stories of my experiences in connecting with the spirit world. In this book, I cover everything from meditation to astral projection. I hope to show other grieving people that their relationship with their loved ones does not have to end with physical death. Our true potential as human beings is far more impressive than most people know.

So, here I was, January 31, 2020, in my living room with my deceased daughter and the missing teen, Tylee Ryan. I agreed to sit down and do a session only because I trusted my daughter. I did my usual prayers calling in the guides and angels that facilitate the mediumship. When I opened to spirit, Tylee Ryan was not alone. An adult male in spirit accompanied her. I had no idea who he was. I thought he could be a "hijacker." Occasionally other souls who have messages will try to piggyback off another. The man kept telling me that he had been shot. He seemed insistent. I told him to back up and be quiet while I communicated with the girl. I told him if he was still there when I was done with her, I would listen to him.

The man turned out to be Charles Vallow. Charles Vallow was the stepfather of Tylee Ryan. He told me a sensational story of his murder as well. I told him that I would Google search for him after the reading, and if it turned out I could substantiate his claims, I would make his information public. Throughout the readings, both Tylee and Charles would come in together every time after that.

I believe that multiple guides and angels were involved in helping my daughter manifest in my living room. It takes a tremendous amount of energy to physically manifest. They know that I trust my daughter. I have complete faith in the spirit guides and angels. With a leap of faith, I took my next step.

When I am communicating with those in the spirit world, I am working for them. If I am conducting a reading, I still allow the spirit person to convey what they wish to say. When a spirit person is the victim of the murder, I focus on helping them obtain justice. It is necessary to keep the goals of the spirit person in mind moving forward. The story I have to tell is horrific. The proof is in the details of the readings. The likelihood that anybody could guess what I claimed to be shown is close to zero.

Tylee Ryan was adamant that she wanted everybody in the world to know what her mother had done to her. Early in the series of readings, I communicated to Tylee that perhaps she might not want everybody to know such personal details of her murder. Tylee pushed this issue to the point where my pet name for her was "little miss adamant." It was the best word to describe her.

Charles Vallow was motivated because he wanted Lori and Chad to be held responsible for their actions. Charles was patient but persistent. Charles wanted justice, and for that, the bodies of the children needed to be recovered. Once Tylee had my attention, she and Charles were at my home frequently over the next four months. I became pretty attached to both of them. I was determined to help them the best I could.

On January 31, 2020, I loosely transcribed my reading and sent it off to law enforcement. If the correct person received my email and knew Chad Daybell, they would have been able to identify the property immediately. This did turn out to be the case as one of the investigating detectives was related to Chad Daybell by marriage. He is also one that wrote me back a response to one of my emails. (Appendix 1)

I knew these spirit people were real. I knew that I could trust that they were attempting to convey their story. I decided to upload this first reading to youtube. I knew I was risking my safety. Yet, I did have a sense that I would not be harmed because the spirits had brought this case to me. Screenshots of the email is attached at the end of this essay as proof of my claim. The rest is history.

Youtube format requires uploads to be in the form of a video. I converted my recording to the proper format. I put a photo of the missing children to flash for five seconds so I would remember which case this was. I had no idea that over fifty thousand people would just the first video alone. Many people were angry. Some were shocked. Others wrote to say that all psychics are frauds. Almost everybody knew that I believed what I was saying. We all hoped I was wrong.

On January 31, 2020, I uploaded the first reading. I shared it with some Facebook groups, and it caused a scandal. I banned from one group for saying the dad buried them in the backyard. Some people were furious that I would even suggest the children were dead.

People wanted to believe Lori Vallow hid the children in a prepper camp because of a custody dispute with a relative. After all, Chad Daybell was a popular LDS writer about the end of times. He was known to speak at related events frequently. Chad had an extensive network of friends and supporters that could be housing the children.

The first recording was made on a cheap handheld audio recorder with only the one photo flashing briefly. That recording achieved almost sixty thousand views as of this writing. People were reacting wildly to my claims. I could not understand why they were so mad. I thought the goal was to locate the children. So I continued my mission.

People on the internet were talking about me, and the word spread—the things I was saying sounded more like something out of a Stephen King novel than reality. Nobody would chop up their teenage daughter, cook her leg on a grill, and then eat it. It is a case too crazy to be true, yet it is.

I would make sure that Tylee Ryan, JJ Vallow, and Charles Vallow received what they asked of me. I began receiving letters from people listening to my readings and using the clues to do their searches. I formed a group on Facebook for these people and called it "Psychics and Sleuths." Whenever I am working for free, I experiment. In this case, I decided to experiment and put them together in this group.

Several days later, I was holding my weekly development circle. At my circle, each person gets a turn to ask for somebody from spirit. When it was my turn, I asked for Tylee Ryan. I did not give them any indication of who she was. Right away, they picked up that she was a young woman who had been murdered. I was making some serious accusations publicly. I felt the more confirmation, the better.

A couple of days after the reading with Tylee and Charles, I did a pendulum session. I usually would never upload something like that, but I did decide to upload it as more confirmation that this teenage girl was claiming her mother murdered her. At this time, friends and family of both Chad Daybell and Lori Vallow believed them to be upstanding faithful churchgoers.

In early February of 2020, I became ill with the coronavirus. On February 14, 2020, Tylee Ryan and her stepfather Charles Vallow appeared at my bedside with urgent pleas. They had more information they desperately wanted out. I decided to get out of bed and take a shower and put up the information they had conveyed.

After my shower, I was too weak to stay up much longer. I made a video with wet hair and coughing with covid. I looked like death warmed over. It was essential to Tylee and Charles, and I did the best I could. That February 14th, 2020, video, titled, "Psychic Overview" now has over 140,000 views on Youtube.

Soon I was contacted by a relative of Tylee Ryan's biological father, Joe Ryan. My theory was that because Joe Ryan was deceased before the death of his biological daughter Tylee, he would have likely been watching her murder. If our loved ones are there to greet us when we die, then it was likely Joe Ryan had seen what happened. I did the Joe Ryan reading with the relative on the phone. This is not necessary, but it does lend energy to the reading.

The relative of Joe Ryan was concerned for her safety and did not want to be public. I made two copies of the reading. I recorded only myself talking on the handheld recorder. I made a second copy of both of us talking for her to send to law enforcement. A couple of weeks later, she texted me that an FBI agent had picked up her copy of the reading. He wanted to make sure she was not feeding me information.

I uploaded the Joe Ryan Reading to Youtube on March 01, 2020. Joe Ryan did a great job of showing angles and directions. By then, the FBI had released photos showing the last known sighting of Tylee Ryan. The images were of Lori and her brother Alex Cox, with Tylee and JJ, at Yellowstone Park. The images had been taken on September 08, 2020.

People speculated that Tylee might have been murdered or buried in Yellowstone. Joe put me outside of Yellowstone with my back to Yellowstone and showed me out across a valley. He was making it clear that Tylee was not buried in Yellowstone. Joe Ryan was great at showing angles and directions. Joe gave plenty of information to keep the sleuths busy searching for leads. By March 2020, we noticed that many of the clues fit Chad Daybell's home and property.

A retired Idaho detective named Brian contacted me. We ended up talking on the phone for several hours one Sunday afternoon. He asked me if I had ever been to Idaho. He said that I could not have described some of the neighborhoods any better if I was driving up and down the streets while I was talking. I told Brian I did not want to put him out, but if he sent me five or ten questions that might help law enforcement, I would try to answer them. Brian sent me over one hundred questions.

I tried another experiment. I read the questions into my audio recorder and then allowed myself to go deep into a trance while the questions played in the background. I went in and out of trance, often annoyed at my own voice. I asked long questions and gave myself only seconds to answer. Surprisingly, I was able to answer most of the questions correctly.

When I was making the video, "Cop Questions", I allowed myself only one minute per Google search to find something like what I had seen. I had not done much video editing in the previous twenty years, and it shows. The actual video looks choppy and amateur, something a five-year-old could make. Yet, this video, "Cop Questions" has close to eighty thousand views. It has a YouTube assigned upload date-stamp of April 24, 2020.

Soon I was contacted by a member of JJ Vallow's biological family. JJ had been adopted by his uncle, Charles Vallow and Charles's wife Lori. The parents were not able to keep him due to drug addiction. Little JJ was born with quite a few disabilities. The relative told me she knew that JJ was deceased because she was sensitive to spirits, and JJ had visited her. She said she had never done mediumship. She simply had an awareness he was there. She trusted me, and we did the following four readings together. These were date stamped by YouTube and had a following of thousands, watching in live time. Many people subscribed to my YouTube channel and would wait for each new reading to be uploaded.

The controversial statements I made as to the fate of the children gripped people. I would either be right or wrong. There would be no middle ground. I was extremely detailed in my readings as my primary objective was to make sure that any law enforcement official who has experience with psychics would see or hear the readings. One of the detectives in Rexburg, Idaho, who is related by marriage to Chad Daybell, personally wrote me a quick "thank-you" note later.

I would have been happy to be wrong, but when I go into a trance and see in more graphic and vivid detail each time, I know what I know. It is not the same as having a psychic intuition. I see and feel what the spirit person conveys to me. When I am deep in trance, I will hear the thoughts of various people involved. For example, I can feel what the mother is feeling and thinking as she murders her children. This helps to provide motive for a crime.

On June 09, 2020, four months after I started uploading these readings, law enforcement recovered the remains of the children Chad Daybell's backyard. I spent hours staring at the computer screen. When it was all over, they led Chad Daybell away in handcuffs. I knew my work was done. All the intensity of the previous months rolled away from me, and I took to my bed for three days. I was exhausted. I was finally able to grieve what I had seen. I had a headache and an upset stomach seeing the reality of the bodies being exhumed before my eyes.

Now the internet was abuzz once more. People referred to my readings and were shocked at the detail and accuracy. Even those who had believed and hoped my information was not valid. Many people came back to apologize for their earlier comments. Views on my readings continued to rise. Now everybody was repeating the details of this case back to me. It was hard for my conscious awareness to process. I could not bring myself to read the affidavit for over a month. It took me a whole year to read it from start to finish. My mind would usually go numb when I thought about how they had murdered Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow.

The comments and letters I like the most were the ones from former skeptics and atheists who told me they became convinced the spirit world was real. They realized that there is more to this life than what we can see. Some said that they had re-evaluated their entire lives based on their new knowledge that the spirit world is real. I have included several of these letters in a later section of this essay. I put the letters at the end in case the rules of the essay do not allow testimonials. The work I did and the date stamps assigned by Youtube stand as proof of the afterlife.

I was contacted by a former close friend of Lori Vallow several weeks after the remains of the children were recovered. Her daughter and Tylee Ryan had also been friends. I did a reading with her and uploaded it to YouTube on June 29, 2020. That reading is called "Tylee Ryan Victory Reading." It was nice to get to know Tylee in a more relaxed reading such as this one.

The one good thing about this horrible case is that I was able to help this young girl find justice. More importantly to her, I was able to spread the word about what her mother had done to her.

Soon after, I did a reading specific to the murder of Charles Vallow. I also uploaded that reading on June 24, 2020. The Title is "Murder of Charles Vallow Psychic Investigation." I had connected with Charles Vallow many times before, but his relative wanted a reading specifically about his murder. The reading was confirmed in July 2021 when Lori Vallow Daybell was charged with first-degree murder in the death of Charles Vallow. The charging papers stated that they knew by Lori's cell phone pings that she was at home during the murder of her husband, Charles Vallow. These charging papers confirmed my reading.

My spirit communication readings took place in live time in front of an audience. I have proven the spirit world is real. It is the only possible deduction to have also established the afterlife if these spirit people have their full personalities and can communicate through the veil. The format of YouTube provides proof with a legal stamp of the date uploaded. I have reached more people in proving the existence of the afterlife than I ever would have giving spirit messages at church.

There is no subjective requirement involved in my assertions. There is nothing that requires the reader to trust me. All a person has to do is go to that YouTube channel and see for their own self. Each reading is date-stamped by YouTube. You can find that date stamp directly under the title of the video. This proof is accepted in court. Therefore, the date-stamp under each recording stands as proof of the statements I made prior to the bodies being recovered how and where I described they would be.

I am going to dive into the factual claims in part two of this essay. I am apprehensive because I feel that some may takes one look and think they cannot read such horror. I hope such a person does not discount my paper. Please remember that I am conveying what these victims in spirit need to be shared. Please understand that these people were already murdered when they came to me in their spirit form. I am helping them in their goals. I am providing information for law enforcement when they make public pleas stating that they have no leads.

I help the spirit people by attempting to translate the imagery and visions they show me. Keep in mind the usefulness of mediumship to law enforcement. In circumstances where there is no trail of evidence, it helps to have somebody who can simply ask the victim and relay back the messages. In this case, both local law enforcement, and the FBI, stated that they had no leads and asked for the public's help. While you are reading excerpts from my readings, please keep in mind the potential clues used by law enforcement and searchers.

If the general public was made aware of the proof given in my readings, it might prevent some murders. The courts cannot use the word of a psychic to obtain a search warrant, however. The testimony is generally not allowed in a courtroom. Law enforcement must still find physical evidence to back up any clues or leads they receive from people like me. Psychics rarely, if ever, receive credit for their work. The general population is not aware of the value of psychics to law enforcement. Murder victims can communicate. Psychics can provide information that will lead law enforcement to evidence they might not otherwise find.

It was my deceased daughter that brought Tylee Ryan to me. I would have likely dismissed Tylee Ryan as an errant trickster spirit if she had appeared in my living room alone. My trust and confidence in my connection with my spirit daughter enabled me to trust Tylee Ryan and her story.

With these warnings, I will move to part two to state the essential claims I made and prove that these claims have been substantiated. The grammar in part two will not be correct in English because I am loosely transcribing my own words while in a trance state. I will put quotation marks for when I was speaking, even though it may not be a direct quote.

Part 2 – Examples of Claims from My Readings and the Later Confirmation of those claims

There was no doubt in my mind when Tylee Ryan appeared with my daughter in my living room as to whether she was deceased or not. I uploaded the first reading to YouTube on January 31, 2020. The date stamp provided by YouTube is the crucial basis of my argument that I have successfully proved the afterlife and evidence of spirit communication. I never wavered from this claim.

The transcripts from this series of readings are over six hundred pages. The space for this essay requires me to choose just a few examples.

Claim #1 - I am communicating with the Spirits of Deceased Murder Victims who frequent my home.

Reading, "Tylee Ryan Most Important", YouTube date-stamp January 31, 2020;

(1:54) "I am asking this little girl, Tylee, if you can come through and communicate with me tonight...*I feel like she is here...*I am just seeing images, so instead of worrying about who is here, I am just going to see images..."

(33:27) "They use whatever images they can find in my consciousness the pull-up, so *they are standing there scanning my mind...*they are like, "Oh, here is a little detached garage Donna saw before, let's show her that one...that is where people can think it is wrong when it is not wrong..."

(36:50) "For all I know, it could be some jokester spirit feeding me crazy information, and they do exist. It is best to have (a relative or a loved one who knows the deceased) because they will keep going back in. It is like a cinnamon roll; they will keep going back and giving something that confirms who they are...and once we are linked together, and I know I have the person..."

(46:16) "I have slight chills. I feel the presence of spirit..."

(50:34) "*I feel like there is an adult male with me...*I don't want to interpret the vision. I just want to tell you what I see...they can stack things on top of each other..."

Reading, "Psychic Overview", YouTube date stamp February 14, 2020;

(1:15) "...I asked if this girl Tylee was in spirit, and I received an affirmative response..."

(2:00) "Sometimes they will put you in a location to get you to say something else, so when you are listening to this, my interpretation could be wrong, and that is when mediums usually are wrong it is usually in their interpretation...*so they are trying to show me something...*so literally this kind of work is done with telepathy with the spirits, and it is done mostly in images and symbols...photos and video clips...I don't pick and choose if I am doing this. I just say what I see."

(10:00) "...I feel like the father with the last name Ryan...I think his name was Joe Ryan; I would think from spirit he would be watching what happened to his daughter...I know for sure Charles has...I do one hundred percent know that Charles came through..."

(14:23) "...In the vision, I am seeing the girl again, so this is either going to be the girl telling me something, or this is going to be about the girl."

(18:12) "...Tylee comes through really strong, and she really wants to talk about this..."

(19:00) "...Tylee wants to talk..."

(19:50) "...So, at that point, the spirits were waiting to see if I could go forward or if I needed to stop because it was just trauma energy...if you are going to go there, you are going to be sitting there in the energy of what happened, and murder is horrific."

(21:00) "...I feel two spirits are now in front of me, two. There was an adult male with Tylee that I later identified to be Charles Vallow. I did not know who the adult male was at first, so I did not allow him to talk. Later I did allow him to talk, and he showed me a few things...the spirit man, which I later identified as Charles Vallow, that I would look online, and if I could confirm a few facts, I would send the information public...

(32:29) "...I was at my sink doing dishes, and I felt Tylee come into my awareness, and I told her I would meditate after I was finished with my housework, and if she would come to me then, then I would do another session..."

(36:04) "...*I decided to do a pendulum reading with her since she was there...*So, I confirmed. I said, Tylee do you want to talk about this? Because this is traumatic and people go, "why don't you just let her rest in peace." They don't need to sleep because they have energy bodies. I confirmed that Tylee really strongly wants to talk about it. Two people who really want to talk are Tylee and Charles..."

(39:43) "I asked to speak with Tammy Daybell, and I did connect with a woman, but it was lighter than those other two. So I am asking for that woman, whereas those other two, Tylee and Charles, come through together, come through very strong like they want to talk, and talk."

Reading, "Joe Ryan to locate Missing Idaho Tylee Ryan murdered by Lori Vallow" - YouTube date stamp March 01, 2020;

(10:20) "...I think to Joe, "You really did not get a fair shake in all of this," and I have super strong chills on both of my legs..." (This illustrates one of the many ways spirits communicate telepathically. The chills are like an exclamation point.)

(10:29) "...I was just thinking in my mind to Joe, and I said, "it is all up to you now, Joe," and he said, "you better grab a box of tissues."

(1:05:22) "...I feel like it is the spirit of Joe, but there are all these other spirits all around..."

(1:17:43) "...So I have felt the presence of Tylee; I felt the presence of Charles Vallow. I even invited Tammy one night, and she came, and she gave me messages for her children, and I had the most chills, on my skull and my arms...and she was showing me the poison...I felt the presence of all these people, but I have not felt the presence of JJ. I do not know if that is because he was such a young person or if he needs healing, like people on the other side need healing too, like the light beings, the spirit beings, it could be that he is in a healing thing, or it could be that he is so young, I feel like I have energy...Twice, he (Charles) came with Tylee..."

Reading "Psychic Investigation Lori Vallow takes Tylee Ryan to Yellowstone Park before Murdering her" March 08, 2020;

(1:02) "...Once they sense that somebody is stressed, whether it is you, me, or them, they will go into some different memories that are not as traumatic, but when they sense everyone is calmed down, they will go back into it again. And the reason they go back into it again is that each time they could show more details around it..."

(43:33) "...I am just going to let Charles take me where he wants to take me..."
(Indicative of turning over some level of control to the spirit people)

(54:09) "...Right now, I am just floating, so I think what it is they want to clear everything out as to what they want to put there. Charles, but I feel the other ones now; I feel the other ones I work with. I feel the spirit people are like in a circle around me, but I am still with Charles...and I think they are letting me know that I can just let go (of resistance to seeing graphic details)...They are letting me know. I see them all around me. I see the spirit people, the ones that do the mediumship, kind of like angels...they are not quite angels, they are like a wise council type... and always they let Nicole...They let my dog that died last week...they let that one be with me tonight in the circle I made before I called you; I felt them both. And my daughter was dancing; it was really neat. She had my dog she showed me. It was beautiful. They are showing me that again right now and what they want to do is fill up a lot of love in this space...they are just saturating this entire thing in love is what they are doing. Charles is asking me if I am ready, and he is putting his arm on me so I can go with him..."

(1:22:40) "...okay, so I feel like he is going, "You done yet?" He is funny. It is like humor. It is not like he is mad at all. He is nice, and he says it nicely, and he is just waiting for me. He is like, okay; you said it five times now. Okay, he is really nice. He is a real strong personality in person and in spirit..."

(19 sec - 1:00) "...The way the spirits work is they do everything. They can see more than us, and they can read our minds..."

There are hundreds of times I claim that I am communicating with the spirit people who have been murdered related to Lori Vallow and Chad Daybell. I frequently state they are in my home with me. It is impossible to put every example here, but my explanations on this matter run throughout the readings I uploaded to YouTube.

The proof for these statements is that the remains of the children were recovered on June 09, 2020, buried on Chad Daybell's property. The detailed information made public confirmed the information the spirit people gave to me. The details in my readings are very complex and accurate. It would be next to impossible to guess by pure chance. The transcripts for the readings are approximately six hundred pages. Most of the readings are from seventy minutes to over two hours.

In addition, the fact that I am a legal ordained spiritualist reverend indicates that I do participate in spirit communication practices throughout my daily life. My ordination also shows a certain level of expertise in that I know whether I am communicating with a spirit person or simply working in a psychic realm. The information confirmed in this criminal case substantiates my claim.

Claim #2: The missing Idaho children Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow are deceased.

Reading, "Tylee Ryan Most Important," January 31, 2020;

(2:24) Regarding Tylee Ryan, "...I feel like she's here..."

(8:20) "...What I am seeing is a man and a woman and they are carrying...one person wrapped in black plastic...it feels like the man is digging pretty hard there...it feels like it's the boy that was buried there..."

Throughout the readings, there is zero doubt that I am seeing the children are deceased. There is zero doubt I am communicating with Tylee Ryan and Charles Vallow, as well as others. I graphically describe the details surrounding the murders and clues as to the location of the remains of the children. Initially, I uploaded the first reading to Youtube to provide information to law enforcement and searchers.

Proof of the afterlife is in the graphic details surrounding these deaths. It would take a statistician to accurately calculate the odds of me guessing everything as correct as I have in this case. My father, a retired engineer, roughly calculated the odds at less than one in a trillion.

I am working for spirit people who were murdered before I met them. I am assisting them to get information out to those people who can help.

For me, the spirit people are as real as the physical people. I feel more responsibility to the spirit people simply because not everybody can interact with them the way I can.

The recovery of the remains of the children on Chad Daybell's property on June 09, 2020, and the information released since confirms my claim. Media Headlines are everywhere. A simple Google search can provide all the information you would desire to confirm my claims.

An article from the East Idaho News written by Eric Grossarth on June 09, 2020 states;

”Human remains have been found on the property of Chad Daybell, stepfather to a pair of Idaho children missing since last September, and he has been taken into police custody. The remains were found after authorities issued a search warrant at the Daybell home on 1900 East in Fremont County on Tuesday morning.”(2)

Within several days the remains of the missing Idaho children were confirmed to be that of Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow. In this June 13, 2020 article, Minyvonne Burke writes, “Prosecuting attorney Rob Wood said Wednesday during a court appearance by Daybell that the manner of concealment of one of the bodies was "particularly egregious," but did not elaborate. A probable cause affidavit in the case has been sealed, according to court documents.

Police said an autopsy confirmed the remains belong to Tylee and Joshua, who were 17 and 7 years old, respectively, when they went missing in September.” (3)

Claim #3: The Mother murdered her children with the assistance of at least one male.

When I made this claim, Lori Vallow and Chad Daybell were both respected members of their church. I took a lot of backlash for even suggesting the children were deceased, let alone that Lori was the key person who had murdered them.

I repeatedly stated that Lori Vallow Daybell was in charge during the murders of her children. In my readings, I frequently say that I am unsure if the male helping her is Alex Cox or Chad Daybell. Both men took part in the murders and/or disposal of the bodies. On December 11, 2019, FBI agents exhumed the body of Chad's wife, Tammy, to check for poisons. I did not know about this at the time of my first reading on January 31, 2020.

Lori's brother, Alex Cox, conveniently died on December 12, 2019, of a pulmonary embolism. As of May 2021, Lori Vallow and Chad Daybell are now facing first-degree murder charges in the deaths of their children. Throughout my readings, I talk about Lori being the key person. Here are some examples;

Reading, "Tylee Ryan Most Important" January 31, 2020;

(8:20) "...What I am seeing are a man and a woman who is carrying one person, wrapped in black plastic...it feels like the man is digging pretty hard there and then covering...it feels like that was the boy there..."

(29:57) "...It feels like they just did not want kids to hamper up their life, it feels like the mother of her is a sociopath, like she just does not have feelings, if anything, she is slightly amused by somebody else's weakness..."

(47:06) "...I actually feel like the woman likes killing...the mother, I feel like she likes killing..."

(59:08) "...I am going to see if this wife. This wife of the stepfather who helped murder these children or disposes of their bodies...this lady is no victim...This mother of these kids...she may even be the one who killed them..."

Reading, "Psychic Overview" - Upload date February 14, 2020;

(6:00) "...I see I received was a man and woman carrying one person, and that person was wrapped in black plastic...it feels like the boy was buried there..."

(14:35) "...they are showing the mothers motivation, they did not want the kids to hamper up their life, and she feels slightly amused by the weakness of others...then I start seeing my brother's murder...(related to life insurance) they were showing me that, I am getting this feeling of a sociopath...a sociopath that became delusional over time that becomes a psychopath, this is only my opinion..."

(38:06) "...This string of murders starts; Tylee was not part of it. They just used her, running with the bat. They tried to convince Tylee she was part of it. Tylee was murdered because she sees the crime, and Lori is angry about the life insurance. The motivation to murder JJ was to get back at Charles and his sister over the life insurance. So the reason to murder JJ is revenge. We are talking about the mind of a sociopath here..."

Reading, "Joe Ryan Psychic Reading," YouTube date stamp March 01, 2020;

(1:06:32) "...It feels like Tylee was leery of her mother's attitude towards things. It feels like her mom is literally this sociopath..."

(1:17:25) "...And she (Lori) was mad about the life insurance money stuff, and that was retaliation..."

Reading, "Yellowstone" Day Trip – YouTube Date Stamp March 28, 2020;

(1:33:42) "...I saw a man, and I saw Lori..."

(1:46:00) "...Alex was grossed out. He had no problem with the murder, but it did not gross Lori out; that is weird. Murdering his own niece, he did not have any feelings, and neither did she. He is at one end. She is at one end. She is demanding that he disembowel her.... she berates him that whole time..."

The public confirmation for this is that Lori Vallow Daybell and Chad Daybell are now charged with first-degree murder and conspiracy to commit murder. The information in the court documents confirms my readings to be highly accurate. In addition, simple Google searches will confirm most details as this case is now highly publicized.

Confirmation comes in May of 2021, when Lori Vallow Daybell and Chad Daybell are charged with the first-degree murder of both children. Headlines are easy to find. One such example is from CNN, by Andy Rose; "Chad Daybell and Lori Vallow Indicted on Murder Charges" May 26, 2021;

"Chad Daybell and Vallow are both charged with first-degree murder of the children and conspiracy to commit first-degree murder against all three victims, according to court documents. Daybell and Vallow already were facing charges related to the destruction or hiding of evidence relating to the disappearance of the children. Arrest warrants were issued Tuesday for them to be held without bail." (4)

The most concrete information is available to the public on the Idaho cases of judicial interest. The front page contains a list of links to each court paper filed in this case. (5)

Claim #4: I accurately described the location law enforcement would find the remains of the children.

Chad Daybell's outbuilding and visions of water frequently appear during the readings. For that reason, I will assign them separate sections.

Reading "Tylee Ryan Most Important" YouTube date stamp January 31, 2020;

(4:05) "...it does look like the Pacific Northwest..."

(5:00) "...From where I am on this property, it feels like a summer house, like a smaller house...It could even be a decent house...type of area where people would have second homes where they take their kids for the summer...it has that kind of feeling...I am not saying that is what it is...the feeling and vibe of the place is very peaceful..." (I have only lived in large cities my entire life, so this is my viewpoint.)

(19:05) "...It could be a permanent house, but that is the type and style and the feeling I have...maybe because I have never been there..."

(31:04) "...I feel like there is a little front porch area...it is more like a flat, it could be brick or concrete, might have a foot-high brick border...it might be big enough to have a couple of chairs where a couple of ladies might be sitting and talking..." (The central portion of Chad Daybell's house is brick.)

(32:33) "...I almost feel like the house may have been built between the 1950s and 1970s..." (Chad Daybell's house was built in 1960)

(32:46) "I feel like it is a one-story, but it could now be a two-story like maybe someone came along later and added one more bedroom on half the house...it might even still be painted two different colors. The bottom story has one color of paint, and the addition, they left it wood brown where you stain the wood or whatever..."

Reading, "Psychic Overview," YouTube date stamp February 14, 2020;

(16:45) "...I feel like saying somebody that knows Chad and Tammy Daybell will know...somebody who knows all these people will know exactly what I am talking about..."

(17:30) "...I almost feel like this little house has been built between the '50s and the '70s and may have once been a one-story, added a second story and maybe even still has two different colors of paint, they left the top like stained wood, but I am not sure, but there is just something like that where you can tell they added a little bit up..."

Reading, "Cop Questions Lori Vallow" – YouTube date stamp April 24, 2020;

(7:43) "...I see brick...where you plant bushes...right outside the cabin front door..."

I alternate calling Chad Daybell's dwelling, a home, or a cabin. Part of this comes from the rural atmosphere I feel there. Part of it is from not being shown the entire structure in one piece, probably for my safety. Chad Daybell had a large following of "end of life" preppers. He was free while I was making these public claims.

(11:08) "...I feel like it was built probably when they still thought it was decorative....to me, it feels like the '50s, '60s or '70s...I see things that look like built in the 1960s or 1970s..."

June 09, 2020 - Bodies of Murdered Idaho children found at Chad Daybell's home. Remains of children showed that they had been murdered in the precise way Psychic Reverend Donna Seraphina had described in the psychic reading uploaded to her YouTube channel January 31, 2020

Claim #5: The location has an outbuilding where part of the crime occurs.

Reading, "Tylee Ryan Most Important" YouTube date stamp January 31, 2020;

After graphically seeing and describing Tylee dismembered...

(18:57) "...there is a garage and outbuilding not connected to the house..."

(18:25) "The garage part is not connected to the main house...considered an outbuilding..."

(19:31) (full descriptions of siding) "...it has a workbench around three sides of it, and it feels like he has the daughter's body on that workbench, and he is literally chopping it up..."

(34:00) "...one thing about that detached garage, it is definitely detached from the house, even if (the place you see has a built-in garage) maybe this thing that is detached from the house is built to be a workshop for a hobbyist. Because it has a workbench on all three sides..."

(1:06:11) "...It could be wide enough for a car to pull in, but it is built like a garage, but its primary purpose is being like a hobby shed, they might pull cars up in it to work, but that is not the main purpose..."

Reading, Psychic Overview, YouTube date stamp February 14, 2020;

(12:20) "...Whether this little house has its own garage or not, I do not know...but there is this little building...and it is more like a workshop, the trim work (wavy)...I see pieces of evidence in the drain of this shed..."

Reading, "Cop Questions Lori Vallow," YouTube date stamp April 24, 2020;

(18:58) "...I feel like you pull into the driveway, and right on your left is this one outbuilding. I am not 100% sure if it was built as a garage or a workshop..."

Chad's red workshop is on the right of the driveway. I have noticed that sometimes the direction is reversed on things, causing me to wonder if my third eye may turn things into mirror images. Perhaps I should not be so specific, but when working for free, I like to push the limits on the details to grow as a medium continually.

(21:20) "... Right away, I saw a star, a blue star..."

The blue star is on the round metal chicken coop next to Chad Daybells workshop.

(23:18) "... (Accurate description of the appearance of wavy wood trim) ..."

(23:20) I begin to see aspects of both the main house on Chad's property and the workshop. I talk about the back door being off the hallway to the kitchen. I talk about seeing a heavy old fashioned wooden framed screen door. Then I say I feel like it is a dull red. I am correctly describing the screen door that leads to the back of Chad's home addition. However, that screen door is white. It is Chad's workshop that is dull red. I am not sure if there is a similar screen door just inside the workshop, which could be dull red. Commonly, the spirit people will blend images. However, it is also possible that they are making the clues so that I do not get myself killed in the process of trying to expose these murderers. They could be giving hints that law enforcement would recognize if they were already watching Chad's home and property.

(1:38) "...They are showing me the same place they buried them before..."

The red hobby workshop is where I saw at least some of the dismemberment of Tylee Ryan. I saw part of her body cooked on a fire pit, which is also seen here. Some of her dismembered, charred, and cooked bones were found buried nearby. JJ was located past the boulders, up the slope, and by the small stream.

Reading, "Lori Vallow takes Alex Cox, Tylee Ryan, and JJ Vallow to Yellowstone," March 28, 2020;

(1:29:36) "...It feels like what happened did not happen at the same time. What we got to the place where we can see the chain of events, if it all happened at this one time period or if they went back to the exact same place and I am getting chills about saying this, they put Tylee in the same general place they put JJ but not at the same time. And when Lori and they took their lives...they murdered them not at the exact same time..."

On February 24, 2020, neighbors of Lori Vallow provided the media with a small video clip from a neighbors' doorbell cam. The video clip was from September 17, 2020. This was thought to be the last day known sighting of JJ Vallow was seen alive until the preliminary hearing of Chad Daybell.

Speculation now grew as to if I could be correct in this claim.

In the court filing on June 10, 2020, the day after the recovery of the remains, the affidavit from Ron Ball would indicate that the last verifiable sighting of JJ was September 22, 2020, by friends of Lori Vallow.

When I first made this claim on January 31, 2020, there was nothing other than my readings to indicate that the children were even dead, much less murdered on different days. On March 05, 2020, the FBI released a photograph of Tylee Ryan with Lori Vallow, JJ Vallow, and Alex Cox. They stated this was the last day that anybody had seen Tylee Ryan. The FBI was asking for public help. They wanted any photos people had taken in Yellowstone. A little over two weeks after the FBI released the photo of Tylee Ryan, I did a reading on Yellowstone to discover what route the family took.

I believed that surveillance cameras would pick up various imagery.

June 10, 2020, the affidavit of detective Ron Ball stated,

"Since November 26, 2019, the Rexburg Police Department, along with the FBI, have been investigating the location and whereabouts of these two minor children. The last verifiable sighting of Tylee Ryan was on September 08, 2019, in Yellowstone National Park. The last verifiable sighting of JJ Vallow was September 22, 2019, in his mother's apartment, located at 565 Pioneer Road, #175, Rexburg, Idaho, by Lori's friend, Melani Gibb. While the Rexburg Police and FBI have received many tips of alleged sightings since the beginning of the case, none of these tips have led to any verifiable or actionable information regarding the health, safety or location of the minor children." (6)

Several of Chad's friends refused to believe me before the bodies were recovered. Later they wrote to me that they had now met with the FBI to tell them everything they knew about Chad. The wheels of justice grind slowly.

Another fascinating look into the workings of the FBI showed that they had obtained satellite images of the Daybell property for September 09, 2020, the day after Tylee Ryan was last seen alive. The satellite images are so clear that the overturned dirt can be seen in the location Tylee Ryan was missing. This information was released in June of 2020 after the recovery of the remains had taken place. (7)

(28:19) "...Yes, they are confirming this girl's body cut up. They are confirming it is back past where they will find the boy's body probably wrapped in this black plastic..." (similar to previous statements) "...go towards the center of that, like her buried her

39:20 "If you find the boy's body and it is where I say, then when you go up a little and see a cluster of fluffy bushes in the middle, that is where he buried the limbs...they go back to there...I don't know if they go back or did it all at once...I just know...did they go there all at once? Did they bring her body there all at once? NO, I am not getting chills...Did he go back there on more than one occasion to bury these children's bodies? Big Chill..."

The confirmation was all over the news and the headlines are easy to find. Photos are everywhere. Here is one photo showing an Arial view of the property of Chad Daybell on June 09, 2020, the day law enforcement was recovering the remains of the children.

Claim #8: The manner of death is different for both children.

This becomes obvious as I move into the details of how each child was murdered.

Reading, "Tylee Ryan Most Important" YouTube date stamp January 31, 2020;

20:40 "The plastic I am seeing with her is different. Why does he have two different plastics...with her, he is trying to do something different."

24:42 - "...Girls cut up the body, but I don't feel like they cut up the boy's body..."

The confirmations for this will be throughout the descriptions of the deaths below.

Claim #9: Water that looks like a lake but is different.

During the readings I am referring to multiple bodies of water. I talk about water that looks like a lake but is unlike any other lake I have ever seen. I know there is something different about this, and I consistently encourage the listener to interpret this body of water for themselves. This turned out to be a large pond on Chad's property that sometimes merges with the large irrigation pond on the neighboring cattle ranch. I talk about a small stream that does not freeze and runs differently than a standard stream. This turns out to be the irrigation canals which surround Chad Daybell's property.

Here are some examples;

Reading, "Tylee Ryan Most Important" - YouTube date-stamp January 31, 2020;

(5:53) "...The place where it feeds the river there, like a bottleneck. If the lake is round, it looks like a bottleneck. I feel like it is leading into the lake... but I don't know for sure. They are directing my attention to there..."

(14:20) "...I know more about this lake because they still have me there. We are not burying the body anymore. We are back at this house, this piece of property that I believe..."

(15:12) "...They have me looking in that direction at the neck of this lake...I am sure most lakes come up from the ground because I have to say what I see...you have got to interpret it yourself too...interpret what I am saying with every possible way of looking at it..."

Reading, "Psychic Overview," YouTube Date stamp February 14, 2020;

(00:15sec) "...somebody, especially if they are family or friends, is going to recognize the location I describe..."

(3:40) "...I described a lake that was different than any other lake I had ever seen because this lake was fed by a river and not by the ground like most lakes I have ever seen. (It was a combination of a large irrigation pond for a ranch and Chad Daybell's Pond)

(6:40) "...The next image I am seeing a mountain off in the distance. I was not sure why they were showing me this. Were they emphasizing something to do with a river coming into a lake? I was not sure because I had never seen anything like this..."

Reading, "Joe Ryan Reading to Help Locate Remains of Children." YouTube date stamped upload March 01, 2020;

During the Joe Ryan reading, it is clear there are multiple water bodies involved. I pick up what appears to be a lake, a small stream, along with a separate larger river. Joe Ryan did an excellent job of showing me more details about the various types of water bodies. He showed me what looked like a small creek or stream. This turned out to be an irrigation canal that borders all four sides of Chad Daybell's property. Joe Ryan also showed me a larger river involved as well as the lake.

(12:00) "...There is a small brook, a creek that is small, and it is important. On both sides, there is snow, yet the stream does not freeze. It is about three feet across, not frozen..."

(13:12) "...I see this small creek, and the water is still running..." (This is the irrigation canal that runs on all four sides of Chad Daybells property).

(37:59) I see water. I see the creek again, the small stream, where water is still running, and it is teeny...how does water flow like that?"

(38:15) "...the directional flow of water, "how does water run like that," the little creek seems to run into a bigger stream..."

(56:25) "...This lake might not be a lake at all; this is just what it looks like..."

(56:43) "...Wider river maybe this river is separate from the lake and small creek..."

(57:03) "... the river is going quickly, and it feels much wider than the others..."

(57:20) "...The 20-foot-wide river moves out to a wider body..."

(57:45) "...I do not know regarding the lake..."

(58:13) "...River fast seems cold..."

The confirmation for this claim is the fact that the children's remains were found on the property of Chad Daybell. It turns out that the Henry Fork River runs through that neighborhood. There are multiple ponds and water bodies scattered around. Chad Daybell has one pond that is approximately eighty feet by forty feet. That pond is in the picture above related to Chad's red workshop. Chad's property is surrounded on two sides by a cow ranch. The irrigation pond for that ranch is sometimes so full it connects overflow into Chad's pond. Irrigation canals run on all four sides of Chad's property. When Joe Ryan had showed me the "small stream or creek," I saw the irrigation canals. Later a neighbor of Chad Daybells would send me photos of them kayaking in the large pond. It does look like a lake from ground level. I knew something about this "lake" was different than any lake I had ever seen.

There is another large pond at the end of Trapper Lane where I believe they put some of the chopped-up organs and meat from Tylee Ryan's body. Additionally, there is a boat ramp less than one mile on the Henry Fork River where Chad Daybell may have thrown some tools. I am not sure which water body he threw the tools. I did see that he saved one of the tools for sentimental value.

From Ground Level this large Irrigation Pond looks very much like a lake.

Irrigation Pond bordering Chad's property looks like a lake hole standing at ground level. This irrigation pond actually doubles as a lake for the many kayakers who take advantage of this local water source.

Irrigation Pond bordering Chad Daybell property is a popular destination for outdoor activities and easily looks like a lake if someone is at ground level.

Claim #12: I graphically, accurately, and with detail described the murder of Tylee Ryan.

Initially, this reading was only intended to aid law enforcement. The benefit of providing precise information that may be unknown to the public allows law enforcement to differentiate when they have a legitimate psychic providing information. As a psychic medium, my role is to say what I see, with exceptions. When I have relatives on the phone, I generally do not describe what I see graphically.

During my second connection with Tylee Ryan, I communicated that perhaps she would not want such personal and horrible details to be public. Tylee Ryan adamantly insisted that she wanted everybody in the world to know what her mother had done to her.

In addition, in the accuracy of these following horrific statements, thousands of skeptics and atheists received proof in live time that the spirit world is real. The letters from the skeptics turned believer is my favorite. Some of these are enclosed later in the essay. I have concluded that the spirit guides chose such an outrageous murder to prove their existence because of the attention my uploaded readings received before the recovery of the children's remains on June 09, 2020. By that time, there were approximately three hundred thousand views on YouTube for my readings on this case. I offer the reader documented proof.

Tylee Ryan was disemboweled, dismembered, cooked over a fire pit, eaten, and part of the remaining meat was put in a deep freezer. Part of Tylee Ryan was buried, and pieces of her body were scattered. Enough of what I have said has been proven to be very accurate. In the Preliminary hearing of Chad Daybell, law enforcement testimony confirmed the condition of the bodies. I saw that after cooking part of Tylee, Chad, Lori, and Alex Cox made sandwiches with her flesh and ate them.

At the preliminary hearing of Chad Daybell during August 2020, "Detective Hermosillo would detail some of the evidence recovered from Chad's property in the search that occurred on June 09. Tylee's remains were discovered in a bucket containing chunks of burned flesh. JJ was found in a black plastic garbage bag. He was dressed in red flannel pajamas with a blue blanket over him, body covered in duct tape. There was another white garbage bag over his head, with several layers of duct tape wrapped from chin to head.

Please be warned that the following is very graphic. Keep in mind that I am helping the spirit person to communicate their experience to the world. I am allowing that spirit person who is seeking justice. I am helping to find clues that may provide a direction for law enforcement when they do not have any leads. This is what helps me to stay somewhat distanced from the traumatic scenes I witness.

(24:42) "...Girls cut up the body, but I don't feel like they cut up the boy's body... a little past where they buried the boy, you go up another slope...(some small bushes)...where they buried the body parts of the girl. Confirmation came when the judge unsealed the probable cause affidavit written by Detective Ron Ball, Page 10, Statement #39;

"Methodically, the dirt in this area was searched and several other items of interest were found including other bones, Chaired tissue and charred bones. Cheryl Anderson indicated these additional bones both charred and uncharred and tissues found were human remains."

CLAIM #13 - The cooking of Tylee's flesh on the fire pit.

I know these murders are horrific and gruesome. The reader may wonder why I would submit such shocking proof of the afterlife. The outlandish claims I was making in my readings drew the attention of literally thousands of people. The combined total of views on all my readings on this case is over three hundred thousand views. I have proven the afterlife to more people with this one case than I ever could of giving messages at church.

I have proven the existence of the afterlife in a way that does not ask the reader to trust anything I say. YouTube puts the date stamps. The hard proof is there to turn even the strongest skeptic into a believer.

The question could be as to why the fire pit stands alone. What I saw shocked and traumatized myself and others to the point that the internet crime groups were all abuzz, arguing that I was either insane or altogether right.

My claim that Lori Vallow, Chad Daybell, and Alex Cox cooked and ate part of Tylee Ryan was remembered by many thousands of people who came back to my YouTube channel to apologize for their previous attacks. The odds of a mother cooking and eating her children are astronomical. Those skeptics never forgot the fire pit.

(20:00) "...I feel like there is a fire pit and the fire pit has concrete like it has concrete around it, it not just a flat on the ground build a fire like it is has a round ring around it.

The fire pit was confirmed in the August 2020 preliminary hearing of Chad Daybell and the previously mentioned June 10, 2020, affidavit of Detective Ron Ball. At the preliminary hearing, FBI agent Steve Daniels was one of the people to testify. (9)

Here is a recounting of Steve Daniel's testimony written by Rebecca Rosenberg, August 4, 2020, in the New York Post;

"The team identified several other areas that appeared to be graves and excavated two sets of animal remains, a cat and a dog, before finding Tylee's dismembered corpse, Daniels told the court.

A backhoe uncovered two potential vertebrae, and that's when Daniels said he smelled "decomposing flesh." The team started using hand tools and found a pelvic bone and "pieces that appeared to be burned, some of them were pink still" before shutting down the excavation until the next morning."

On June 10, they continued digging around a "mass of human remains," Daniels recounted of the gruesome crime scene.

"At the very bottom of this mass, we find this melted green bucket," he said. "To the side of that bucket, we eventually find a skull and then to the side of that skull we find a mandible with some teeth."

My readings were confirmed and validated starting June 09, 2020. It was four months after I uploaded the first reading. They have not yet confirmed that Chad, Lori, and Alex ate part of Tylee's flesh. I know that they did do this. It remains to be seen if they will address this issue in the upcoming trials of Lori, Chad, and Alex. For my own confirmation I do not need outside verification. I saw and witnessed what these people did multiple times.

Claim #14: JJ Vallow was murdered by Lori as she suffocated him with a bag and wrapped him in duct tape and black plastic with the help of a male.

Confirmation occurs June 19, 2020, when the affidavit written by Detective Ron ball was released to the public. This affidavit is available on the Idaho website (10)

Following are some quotes from the affidavit;

Page 9, #32 - "Members of the FBI ERT team removed the top layer of sod. Underneath the layer of sod were several large flat rocks. The rocks were removed, and two pieces of flat paneling were found. The paneling was removed, and investigators exposed round object covered in black plastic."

Page 10, #33 - "Upon exposing the round object covered in black plastic, strong odor was noticed. FBI ERT member used small sharp instrument and made small incision in the plastic and layer of white plastic was observed. An incision was made into the white layer of plastic exposing what appeared to be human remains, the crown of head covered in light brown hair."

Page 10, #34 - "The remaining dirt around this object was methodically removed, exposing what appeared to be body wrapped in black plastic. The plastic appeared to be tightly wrapped around the body and secured with gay duct tape."

Claim #15: JJ Vallow was murdered while wearing flannel pajamas, and the room had navy blue comforters.

I am seeing JJ murdered while he is wearing his pajamas. I see the incident happening just inside the doorway of a bedroom. I see blue blankets and a bunkbed. Spirits will provide information like this that would be relevant to bolster other claims made and provide potential leads for law enforcement. The importance of the information that JJ was wearing pajamas is to help law enforcement narrow down the location of JJ's murder. The bunk beds could be literal or figurative to imply a bedroom.

JJ Vallow was wearing flannel pajamas when his body was recovered, just as I stated. Law enforcement retrieved the photo on the left from Lori Vallow's iCloud account, and the file information indicates she took it on September 22, 2020. The image on the right may also have been the last photo taken of JJ before his murder.

The blue came the blue blanket JJ was buried in after being wrapped in the black plastic. This information would further go to narrow down the location of the murder for law enforcement. It is also in these small details the prove that this spirit communication is real, thus the after life is real as well.

Claim #16: The search team will locate remains.

Earlier, I mentioned a retired Idaho detective emailed me after I uploaded the first couple of readings to YouTube. He was pleased that I talked about the search team recovering the bodies. He felt that was a good sign and would come to fruition. He was familiar with the work of psychics. He emailed me the questions that might help the investigation.

Reading, "Tylee Ryan Most Important" January 31, 2020

22:23 - they are showing me a search team going to this area...Past the boulder and your walking, now there are 4 or 5 men wearing uniforms, you are walking up a slight slope going up the embankment or the edge...I am with this group of men, and we are walking up to look for the body. The one in black plastic, which I believe is the boy is not that far in... kind of up a slope or something, and then as the slope kind of flattens out, it is right about there...

(38:20) I feel like a group of men are showing me, right behind that boulder again where they pulled up to go... they want me to come there again...

On June 09, 2020, A combination of FBI and local law enforcement searched Chad Daybell's property and did locate the remains of the children. The remains of JJ Vallow and Tylee Ryan were as I described in my readings. (12)

CLAIM #17 - 20 IS AN IMPORTANT NUMBER IN THIS CASE

Most of my information during spirit communication comes in the form of visual imagery. I was shown the boy's body being approximately twenty feet from the boulders. This can be measured on google maps and is a true statement. JJ was located about twenty feet from the canal and twenty feet from the boulders.

After the first reading, I looked up Idaho. I discovered the state route 20 runs through Idaho, past Chad's house, and to Yellowstone. I considered this a clue the children's remains were in Idaho. This type of multipurpose blending is common in psychic readings. They do this because it takes less energy to produce one clue. It is a good lesson regarding keeping the mind open that a clue may apply to more than one thing.

It is also interesting that the Kauai police arrested Lori Vallow on February 20, 2020. I am sure that was not a predictive clue in the reading, but it is an interesting factoid.

CLAIM #18: Tylee Ryan is not buried in Yellowstone.

On March 01, I uploaded the reading with Tylee's biological father in spirit, Joe Ryan. Joe felt it was necessary to understand the location that the murder happened compared to the area where Tylee's body was. On the evening, I was to do this reading with a relative of Joe Ryan. I did not want to see the horrific murders. I was still traumatized by what I had seen in previous readings.

I had a standoff during the reading with Joe Ryan. He felt it was necessary to see the murders again to understand the locations of the murder, the dismembering, and the burial. I did not want to see any of it. Joe did the best he could under those circumstances. He did an excellent job of describing landmarks to point to Chad Daybell's home.

(25:10) "...I am facing away to Yellowstone; my back is to Yellowstone..."

(25:34) "...I am facing away from Yellowstone...This Is like charades. I am looking across a valley. Far in the distance, I see mountains..."

Several days later, the FBI released photos on March 05, 2020, of Tylee's last verifiable whereabouts. Speculation grew as to if Tylee Ryan might be buried in Yellowstone Park somewhere. So, on March 08, 2020, I did another reading to see if Tylee was in or out of Yellowstone Park.

Reading "Psychic Investigation Lori Vallow takes Tylee Ryan to Yellowstone Park before Murdering her on 3-8-2020."

Most of this reading follows the route the family takes through Yellowstone, which could be helpful for law enforcement as various security cameras will have picked them up. One piece of information that the internet sleuths were looking for at this time is what gate the family exited. This question was one of several answered in this reading.

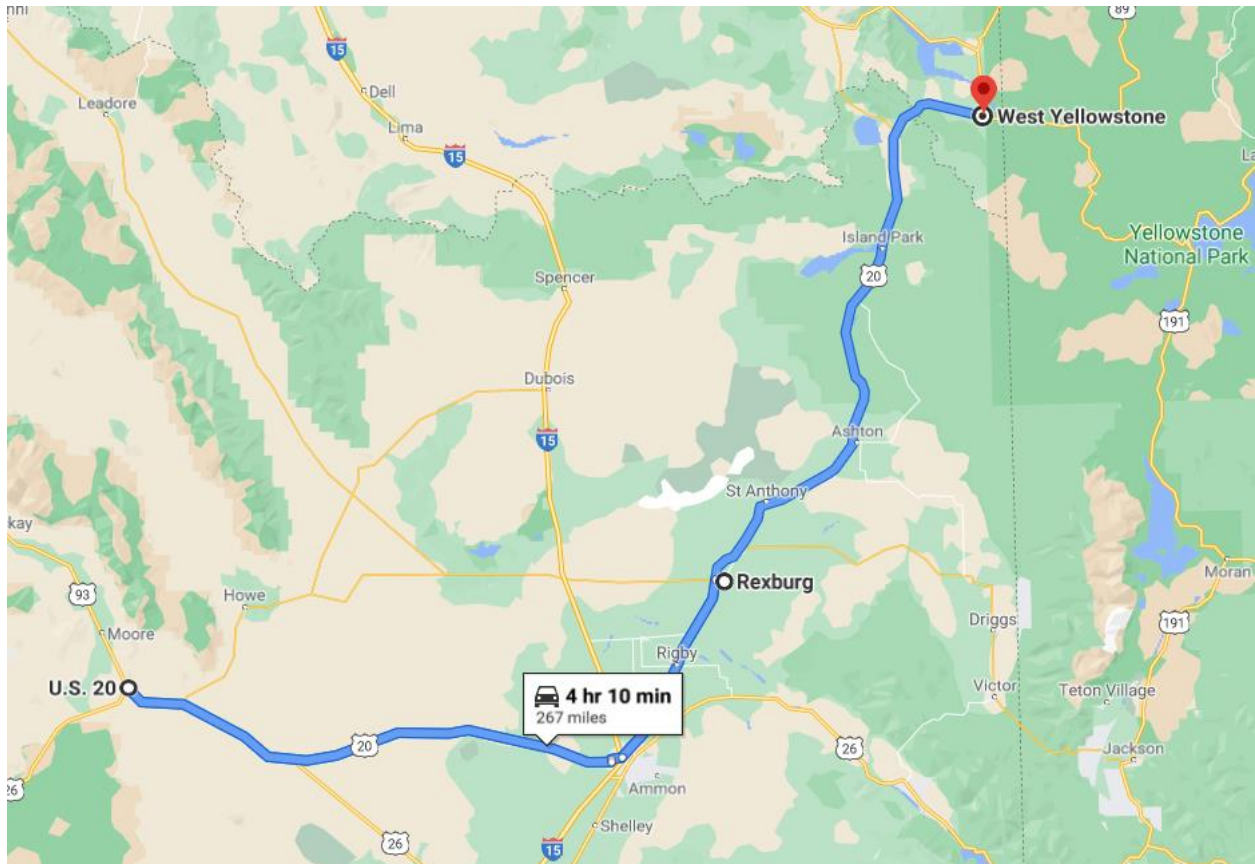

(42:25) "...It feels like we leave back out the west gate and go back on that 20 (highway), a little bit of chills...but we do go back out that west gate...that was huge...I am just going to let Charles take me where he wants to take me..."

Chad Daybell's property is in Rexburg, Idaho. As I had stated, the remains of Tylee Ryan were not in Yellowstone Park.

Source: google maps to measure distance, stock photo for law enforcement recovering remains of JJ Vallow, approx. twenty feet from canal.

This is state route 20 in Idaho which runs past Rexburg and to West Yellowstone.

CLAIM #19: PREPPERS NOT INVOLVED

The media speculated that Lori was involved with a cult of LDS preppers and had hidden her children due to a custody dispute over her adopted son JJ Vallow.

Before his death, Charles Vallow had written in court papers that Lori claimed she was a God. Here is a quote from a USA Today article, (13)

“The slain husband of a woman whose two children are missing and the subjects of a nationwide manhunt claimed she believed she was a god and threatened to kill him months before his death in Chandler last year, according to divorce records.... Charles claimed Lori Vallow didn't want anything to do with him or Joshua "because she had a more important mission to carry out," according to the court documents. Charles said Lori claimed she was "a god assigned to carry out the work of the 144,000 at Christ's second coming in July 2020," the court documents said.”

Reading, "Joe Ryan Reading to Help Locate Remains of Children." YouTube date stamped upload March 01, 2020:

(43:43) "...Someone will recognize this (location) who disapproves..."

(44:06) "...Huge Chills. Plenty of people do not approve. This is not what they signed up for. There are people out there who recognize and know what I am talking about..."

(1:01:36) "...I feel like somebody will recognize, I feel like the majority would not approve of this...I do not feel like...what Lori did...and Alex...I feel like the majority of those people would not of this at all in any way, shape, or form...I feel like the majority of these people would not in any way support this and...a murder is not right ever, most would never support that ...of all of these people, this is; I what is okay for the majority...the many to call this in anonymously about this, they are upset too, and they are not about this, what these guys did with their own justification is not representative of the overall whole. The word I am getting is "abhorrent," not happy, I feel like they should be encouraged is to anonymously call this in...I feel like for thousands of people, it is real for them not being right with this...and not quite knowing what to do..."

(1:09:00) "...I feel like their actions are justified by them, Lori Alex, Chad, Chad murdering Tammy, Lori murdering Charles Vallow...Most of these people do not support this type of activity at all, so Lori, in her evilness, saw an opportunity to make money...but the big group, no...they don't approve of murdering children...they can call in anonymously..."

To be clear, Chad and Lori did want to start their cult. Chad Daybell believed that God directly appointed him to lead the 144,000 mentioned in several religions. According to a close friend of his, Chad did believe in something called the "Davidic Principle." For Chad, this meant that he was not beholden to man's laws as he needed to answer only to God.

Chad had written many LDS "end of times" books and had his own small publishing company. Chad Daybell was a popular speaker at events put on by an LDS prepper group. However, they showed me that the overall prepper group was not involved.

I have spoken with several people who knew Chad and believed him to be a legitimate LDS leader. All of them feel betrayed. When I first became involved with this case in January of 2020, speculation was that the children were alive in a prepper camp. The Joe Ryan reading was the first of my readings that addressed the issue of the preppers in a significant way.

Reading "Tylee Ryan Most Important" YouTube date stamp January 31, 2020:

(50:05) "...one of these people who got murdered related to these children would you please step forward? I feel like an adult male with me..." (then I see a lot of symbolism, i.e., Arizona colors, a Ken doll, going off the side of a cliff, etc.)

(51:30) (I am now bouncing back and forth between Charles Vallow and Alex Cox) "...Alex Cox is excited because he feels like he is going hunting, and he gets to kill something..."

They set that up, I saw it, he showed me that before I even knew who he was, and he showed me the inside of the house, and he showed me the inside of the house, it was all accurate when I looked it up except for the firearm..."

Before his arrest, Chad Daybell was an upstanding and popular member at his church and among his colleagues. Lori Vallow was a beautiful and well-liked lady who spent many hours a week at her temple. Lori told police she was separated from Charles, and he had come to pick up their son JJ for school. Her brother Alex readily admitted he shot Charles in self-defense. I explicitly stated differently as early as January 31, 2020.

My claim was confirmed in July 2021, when Lori Vallow was indicted for the charge of first-degree murder of her husband, Charles Vallow. (14)(15) The following is a quote from 12news, Arizona,

The 13-page probable cause statement details text messages and other online records used in their case.

Lori Vallow Daybell was indicted in Maricopa County on Tuesday for allegedly conspiring to murder Charles Vallow in Chandler.”

Claim #21: Chad Daybell murdered his wife by poisoning, and that he would be going to prison:

On February 14, 2020, I uploaded a recording titled "psychic overview" to YouTube. At that time, neither Lori Vallow nor Chad Daybell had been arrested for anything. They were living by the beach in Hawaii.

This video has 137,000 views of this writing. It served as proof to thousands of people in the ability of psychics and that the afterlife is real. This video and the others convinced many skeptics that spirit communication is honest, in live time.

(50:00) "...Building cinderblock pieces or flesh color..."

(51:57) "When I asked Tammy what poison had been used to murder her, I was shown a visual image of an octopus..."

On May 05, 2021, Chad Daybell and Lori Vallow Daybell were charged with conspiracy to murder Tammy Daybell. Chad Daybell was charged with the first-degree murder of Tammy Daybell. The following paragraph is from the bottom of page 5, count 5. This is a first-degree murder charge against Lori Vallow and Chad Daybell. It also charges Alex Cox, but he is deceased. (16)

“COUNTV CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT FIRST DEGREE MURDER Felony, LC. §§ 18-4001, 18-4003(a), 18-1701 That the Defendants, Chad Guy Daybell, Lori Norene Vallow, and Alex Cox (deceased) on or about October 1, 2018 January 15, 2020, in the County of Fremont, State of Idaho, and elsewhere, including Madison County, and as part of continuing transaction and common scheme or plan in Fremont Counties, Idaho, did willfully and knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree to commit Murder in the First Degree of Tamara “Tammy” Daybell, did combine or conspire to commit murder, and one or more of such persons did an act to affect the object of the combination or conspiracy.”

Claim #22 - The Trapper

This clue provides a critical landmark leading to Chad Daybell's property. I know this to be factual even though it has not come out in the media. In six of the readings, a trapper comes walking through. I kept talking about the Trapper. I also mention that this could be related to a location.

I want to include this example to illustrate how mediumship is like charades. The "Trapper" clue is also an example of how if I were flown into that location, I would have found the remains based on the information contained in my readings.

A quarter mile from Chad's house is a road that the government has renamed E 230 N. The locals left up the old sign, "Trapper Lane." A neighbor of Chad Daybells told me that all the locals still call it "Trapper Lane."

At the end of Trapper Lane is a large, isolated pond. I witnessed both Chad Daybell and Lori Vallow Daybell disperse organs and meat from Tylee Ryan's body at this location. This information has not been confirmed, and I do not know if it will. I saw it enough times so clearly that there is no doubt in my mind.

Reading, "Joe Ryan Reading to Help Locate Remains of Children." YouTube date stamped upload March 01, 2020:

(35:50) "...there is a difference between a trapper and a hunter...Still, I feel like someone might be a trapper there; they walk with those snowshoes and collect furs...*also remember anything they show me might be a name...because they have to show me everything in pictures...*so he still has the Trapper lingering there so there is still more... Trapper would wear snowshoes...he might pull a toboggan with all his furs, like in the olden days, that is what I am seeing, I am seeing a person that would do these things, the guy looks like kind of a big guy but I am not saying that this is the guy...it could even be a place called Trapper, so you know...what I am seeing is almost like the olden days...there is a meaning, though, meaning to this or they would not be showing it to me...I do not know if this is a current thing or a past thing about this area."

Reading, "Lori Vallow takes Alex Cox, Tylee Ryan, and JJ Vallow to Yellowstone," March 28, 2020

(1:45:00) "...they did totally and completely put her into all kinds of pieces...and it is very graphic...the purpose was for the animals to take away the pieces...they know the areas because someone around there does trapping because they know where someone puts the traps...Alex was grossed out, he had no problem with the murder...but it did not gross Lori out...(I believe the dispersed many of the pieces at the end of Trapper lane which is ¼ mile from Chad's home)

Here is a photo of the Trapper Lane Road sign that still stands to this day. The pond where I believe I saw Chad and Lori dispose of some of the fleshy parts of Tylee is at the end of Trapper Lane. Trapper lane is the first road, approximately 1/4 mile from Chad's property.

Source: Photo sent to me and Google Maps

Here is an example of a small clue. The readings are full of these. Everything that is said in the readings matters for one reason or another, as small as it is;

Claim #25 - Joe Ryan was showing me a numeral 4

Joe Ryan Reading

(14:33) I do not see the actual number. I see a number 4 but don't hold it. It feels like it is with pulling into the driveway.... "

Chad Daybells property includes a four-bedroom house. The property has four buildings. The Lot is almost four acres. I have already photo photos above that demonstrate what I am saying. If we were doing a detailed in-depth study, I could point to dozens more clues as this. We went into these details in the Facebook group I created. By April, we were discussing the actual location where the remains of the children would later be found based on the clues in my readings.

Claim #26- I see sled dogs.

Segway's: In the spirit world, and while doing mediumship, I experience no time or distance. For this reason, the spirit guides that I work with will often use a repeated scene to have me understand that we are now going to a given location. I call this a "Segway."

In the series of readings, I was repeatedly shown sled dogs. I believed the sled dogs are a clue that the children are buried in the state of Idaho. Sled dog racing is immensely popular in Idaho.

Reading, "Psychic Overview" YouTube date stamp February 14, 2020

(1:13) "...I was showing something to do with sled dogs, or possibly a neighborhood dog tied to a toboggan..."

Reading "Psychic Reading Charles Vallow Relative Requests Reading to Locate Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow" YouTube upload date stamped March 08, 2020

Part 3 – Where the Case Stands Now

During the months leading up to the recovery of the children remains people either supported me or hated me. All of us, including myself, would have liked for me to be wrong. As the readings went on, the imagery only became stronger. I found it interesting that approximately three weeks prior to the search of Chad Daybell's property, I lost the "push" that I had to constantly move forward with the case. Teresa, an administrator in my Facebook group, asked me if I had lost interest. I told her that I had not lost interest, but I did not feel there was anything more we needed to do. I believe the reason is wheels had been set into motion and the case was going to be resolved.

On June 09th, 2020, I received a text from Teresa. "Did you know they are searching Chad Daybell's property?" I quickly turned on my computer and watched the day unfold. They allowed Chad to watch the search from his daughter's driveway across the street. When they began to unearth JJ's body, Chad attempted to drive away in his vehicle. They quickly caught up with him, and a passerby uploaded a video of the police putting the handcuffs on Chad Daybell.

It was a victory for me to see Chad in handcuffs. I already knew what he had done. For me, it was a matter of making sure that law enforcement found the remains of the children. I was going to keep going with the readings until they did. I had been on a mission for several months.

Helicopters circled Chad's property, watching law enforcement at work. I sat there staring at the screen, leaning forward as if I needed a better view. I could hardly take my eyes off the firepit, which had caused me so much trauma. I watched as they confirmed that two sets of human remains had been found.

The judge stated that the discovery and condition of the bodies were so grizzly that at first, he ruled that the affidavit of probable cause would not be released to the public. Later, it was released. My emails and messenger were flooded with congratulatory messages for being right. There was no feeling of celebration for me. It is a sick feeling to be right on a case that involves the death of innocent children. I would have much preferred to be wrong.

After the day was over, I suddenly felt exhausted. I was not happy. I was not elated. I was sad. I felt sick. I spent most of the next three days in bed. The exhaustion that had been kept at bay now swept over me. I broke out in cold sores. It was strange to see my visions now being played out in the physical world. I grieved for Tylee, JJ, Charles, and Tammy. I felt like I had no energy in my body. When I looked on Facebook, I was now traumatized and the hundreds of people talking about Tylee Ryan being dismembered. It was not a good feeling.

Lori had first been arrested in Hawaii on February 20th, 2020. The month before, Idaho had ordered Lori to "produce her children." She had not complied, and they finally arrested her. Lori Vallow was given a five-million-dollar bail and extradited back to Idaho. She was not charged with any additional crimes at that time. I knew she had murdered her children and making sure she was held responsible was my main priority. It was the driving motivation for the spirit man Charles Vallow as well.

On June 09th, 2020, when Chad Daybell was arrested, law enforcement still did not have enough to charge him for murder. Chad Daybell's charges were related to "concealment of evidence."

On May 25th, 2021, both Lori Vallow Daybell and Chad Daybell were received multiple charges related to the murders. My first reading on the case had been uploaded on January 31st, 2020. I had stated repeatedly that I was connecting with multiple spirit people who were the victims of this murder spree. There is zero chance I could have guessed such detailed information. (16)

In July of 2021, Lori Vallow was charged with the first-degree murder of her deceased husband, Charles Vallow. I had stated that Lori was home at the time of the murder and that Tylee Ryan was a witness to that murder. I also stated that the bang had startled

JJ. In Lori's statement to the police, she had indicated that she was not at home at the time of the shooting. Lori's indictment for murder stated that they knew she was home due to her cell phone pings. More confirmation for those who were listening to my readings. (15)

I proved in live time before thousands of people that spirit communication is real. If spirit communication is real, it is also proven that an afterlife exists. My readings had been so horrific and so detailed that word of them spread and that continued to bring more people into debating the validity of these reading prior to the remains of the children being recovered. Many people wrote back later and told me that I was the first person they thought of as they watched the coverage of Chad Daybell's property on June 09, 2020, the day the children's remains were recovered.

PART 4 – How My Spirit Communication Reading in the case of the Missing Idaho Kids proves the Afterlife

Most media regarding the afterlife requires the person receiving the information to have some level of trust. A skeptic can usually dismiss or find flaws in nearly every claim of spirit communication or afterlife. I have worked on other murders before that I have not uploaded to social media. If I presented those recordings after the resolution of a case, most skeptics would claim I had changed the filing date of the recording. They would find a way to dismiss my claim.

In my book, I have written about over a dozen experiences connecting with those on the other side. A person who wanted to believe in the afterlife would enjoy my book. However, the stories of my experiences would not convince a skeptic. The spirit communication recordings that I uploaded provide a rare opportunity to prove that the afterlife is real, and that spirit communication is possible in live time in front of an audience of thousands.

In the spiritualist church, we give messages at the end of the service. A person who had not received the messages would be able to leave the church and remain a skeptic if they chose to. The readings I uploaded left zero room for doubt and turned many skeptics into believers. There are many beautiful comments under the recordings where people talk about how they did not believe in psychics, did not believe in the afterlife, did not believe in spirit communication. Yet, they came back to tell me that I had changed their life by the proof in my readings.

I have successfully blurred the line between the physical world and the spirit world. I have been sensitive to, and communicated with, spirit and other entities since I was a young child. I never thought much about it. If a spirit communicated with me, I communicated back. Most of this is telepathic. Occasionally they will answer by moving an object, which I love and encourage.

I never thought much about it prior to the death of my daughter. I took this ability for granted. I was fully grounded in the physical world. After the death of my daughter Nicole in 2011, I dove in full time to develop my abilities to their full potential. I began studying with some of the worlds most renown mediums. I made a commitment that I would spend the rest of my time on earth in exploration of the great beyond. Under the circumstances I am eternally grateful for the spirit guides and Angels which assist to facilitate this spirit communication.

In 2014, I attended a mediumship development workshop in Arizona. The facilitator came in early and mingled about the room, introducing himself. I was leaning against a wall, watching him as I waited for the workshop to begin. He came to me and stated, “you know, if we could prove to the world the existence of the afterlife, the entire world would change”. His statement really impacted me because up until then I had focused my efforts to change the world on political activism and volunteer work. I thought about what he said for all these years as I continued my path of development and training to become a spiritualist reverend. Proving the existence of the afterlife is one of my life goals. I love that Mr. Bigelow is interested in this as well.

I have exhibited the strength of my abilities in the series of readings that I uploaded. The proof lies in the date stamps provided by You Tube. These date stamps serve as legal proof that I made the claims in this essay prior to the date anybody could have possibly known the truth. I repeatedly stated that I was interacting with spirits.

When the first reading went viral, I spent extra time during the readings explaining how mediumship works, and how the spirits communicate. There is not enough room in this essay to list everything I stated. The transcripts are over six hundred pages. I provide proof to thousands of people. Many people were so angry they talked about my readings. That served to bring in even more people. The skeptics attacked and ridiculed. In the end, most came back to apologize. There are many comments underneath all the readings on you tube which show that skeptics were convinced of the spirit world due to my readings.

Spirit communication is like playing a piano. Most people could gain a functional ability with dedication and practice. However, there will always be those people that seem to have an extra ability to blur the line between the physical world and the spirit world. Luckily, I am one of those people.

I have been holding circles for six years prior to the covid lockdowns in 2020. I have never met a person who could not be taught some basic functional mediumship. All humans have a pineal gland, which is thought by many to be like an antenna to the spirit world. The pineal gland can be stimulated by prayer and meditation. Yoga, chanting, and humming also vibrate and awaken the pineal gland. In 2015, I began a circle dedicated to mothers who had lost a child. My goal was to teach them that they could indeed continue to communicate with their children that had passed to the spirit side. I noticed that about thirty percent of mothers picked up the mediumship right away when it was explained to them. By the end of the year all of them were doing mediumship.

Spirit communication is like playing a piano. Most people could gain a functional ability with dedication and practice. However, there will always be those people that seem to have an extra ability to blur the line between the physical world and the spirit world. Luckily, I am one of those people. Whatever level of ability a person possesses can be expanded through training and practice.

We are magnificent beings, capable of much more than most of us realize. I believe we come from the world of spirit to experience a physical lifetime. We enter the host body. Most humans look in the mirror and believe they are the host body they see in front of them. The truth is we are far more.

Because the body is biological in nature it must decay and eventually death of the physical body occurs. As this happens, we are surrounded by angels and loved ones of those who passed before us. When I die, I know my daughter Nicole will be right there waiting for me. Because I practice spirit communication regularly, I know that Nicole is right at my side any time I think of her. I can meditate and communicate with Nicole in a similar way as doing a mediumship reading.

Spirit loved ones attempt to communicate with people still in the physical body all the time. Usually, they are ignored or dismissed as being imagination. The truth is we all have spirits all around us constantly. On the EVP in 2018, My daughter told me that she can hear me anytime I think of her. She can hear my thoughts when they are about her. When I open to mediumship my daughter Nicole is often one of the first spirit people I become aware of.

I feel that I have proven the afterlife to tens of thousands of people through my readings on the case of the missing Idaho children, Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow. I believe the spirits knew exactly what they were doing when they allowed Nicole to usher in Tylee Ryan in my living room back in January of 2020. They knew this case would be nationwide. They may very well have known about this essay.

I worked on this Idaho case with the help of my spirit guides and angels. It was one of them that told me that part two of my mission was to prove to the world that the afterlife is real, and that life continues to exist past the death of the physical body. I hope that writing this essay will allow me to fulfill this mission I have of proving the afterlife. I believe that if humanity were to wake up to their true divinity, the world would be a more peaceful place. I am hoping to attract the attention of Mr. Bigelow by this essay. I would like very much to become a part of his institute for consciousness studies.

Part 5 – Testimonials

Testimonial #1

Teresa L Allison - teresa.allison.mail@gmail.com

I am Teresa L Allison, a forty-seven-year-old woman living in West Valley City, Utah. I am an agnostic atheist. A person is unsure whether God exists but sees it as highly improbable, so I don't believe he does.

If I am not able to personally witness, I cannot know for sure. Trusting the word of others' testimonies of their experiences is not enough for me; they must come equipped with sufficient proof to support what they are claiming.

February 15, 2020, I was online looking for updates on the Rexburg case of the two missing children. Lori Vallow had not been arrested yet but, she had missed her deadline to produce the children.

I came across Donna's overview video of her first reading for the case, and she drew me in. Her realism and the way she presented the information oozed honesty. I believed that she believed what she was saying is what happened to the children. I still had skepticism but continued listening to every word.

A few days later, I joined a group page led by Donna called Psychics and Sleuths. I started helping in the cyber search for a location Donna was describing in her reading. I was in the group so often it filled my days and nights. I was asked to join the group admin team.

During the months I worked helping in the group Donna, and I had become friends. I had interacted enough with her that I knew she was not a crazy lady who would make the stuff up she was putting out publicly. She was a smart lady who understood that accusing people of things that are not true could cause her many problems. Yet, she continued to push forward with what she believed happened.

I will admit that I wondered if what Donna was saying she saw was correct, but I always believed that she believed what she was saying happened, which kept me going.

It was a struggle for Donna to get people outside of our investigative group to believe in what she was claiming. People would not give any credibility to what she was saying because she was claiming horrific things. Donna was saying that the kids were dead. No one wanted to hear that. Most people thought they were alive and hidden at a prepper camp somewhere to avoid a custody battle. Here Donna comes along and says the kids are not only dead. She claimed that the daughter, Tylee, had been chopped up into many pieces and that part of her leg was roasted - and eaten by her mother and stepdad. She said the boy, JJ, was suffocated and buried in his PJs. He was wrapped in black plastic that was secured with duct tape. It was too much for people to grasp. Mainly because the police had not yet discovered the children, so Donna could not prove her claims; I watched her get verbally attacked online. Death threats included. She was called a witch, fraud, con. Satan and many more cruel things, She was kicked out of many groups for saying the things she was saying. Her accounts were hacked and shut down. None of that stopped her from showing up and pushing the information again and again. I admired the drive she had, and when she was knocked down, she picked herself back up and fought even harder.

When the children were found on June 9, 2020, any part of me that still had a bit of skepticism had left. It was so awesome to see that what she had been saying all along was reality. There was no denying she had received this information from the victims themselves. No other explanation for how she could have known these details other than if she were there watching these two children be murdered by their own mother.

I now 100% believe that there is an afterlife. Our time together on earth is just a step to the next step of our journey.

Testimonial #2

From: LaDema Fowler - lademah2016@gmail.com

I became aware of Reverend Donna Seraphina as a psychic medium by the readings she did for the case of Tylee Ryan and JJ Vallow I believe thru my Facebook.

I had had one experience where it was shown to me without a doubt that we continue on in spirit after our body stops living and that is what drew me to follow her and hire her myself for my own reading.

Donna has proven to so many that we live on after death in such a profound way by sharing her readings of these innocent children's deaths through contact with Tylee in spirit that there can be no doubt in any sane mind that there is life after death.

I believed most my life that when we die it's all over. That there is no consciousness no emotion, no memory of who we were, just darkness like the light goes out. Tylee touched Donna so deeply and with such a need to get the truth out that Donna suffered in many ways then and now all telling in her voice when you listen to the readings. I was a believer in ghosts but not in the afterlife completely until Donna. thru her hard work and devotion to the spirit world and the determination from Tylee and Donnas daughter Nicole who are in spirit to communicate with Donna that has changed my way of thinking about my own death when it comes. I am free of the fear of death thanks to Reverend Donna Seraphina.

Testimonial #3

From Trish White – Pathwhite25@Gmail.com

I am 50 years old. I live in Louisiana now & will be moving to Mississippi next month. My husband told me about this case but did not want to talk about it...Nor anyone else in my family. I needed to talk about my theories & my research, especially after hearing Donna. So, I started a YouTube channel to talk about this case & this is how I met these amazing women.

I usually won't even watch the news of a child murder because it's too much for me. But, when this case began, where I started with it, I truly believed the extremely religious mother was hiding the children. Nobody wants to feel a mother could kill her own children. Especially the way everyone bragged about Lori as a mother.

By the time we all heard the awful news of the children's remains found on Chad Daybell's property, Lori Vallow's 5th husband, I was far too invested in this & wanted nothing more than to continue helping in any way I could.

I was a nonbeliever before I witnessed the ability Donna Seraphina has shown. My mother had convinced me that familiar spirits only fed anyone who said they were psychic or medium evil information. Thankfully I've come to an age where I can make up my mind. I do my research, and I don't believe there's one single thing evil about this woman or what she did & saw. She was 90% correct in detail 4-5 months before the remains of the dead children were discovered. The documents don't lie.

I learned of Donna & her amazing gift. She made me a believer of things I was a skeptic of. The descriptions Donna gave in Jan 2020, months before the children were found, were 98% correct. This was when I began heavily researching, digging, even paying for searches, looking for cabins, boats, planes, anything described in Donna's reports. I found some critical info but didn't know how to contact Donna. I contacted her via comments & was finally able to send her what I'd found.

It blows my mind how simple some people are. Why can't we all see the truth & admit it? I had seen Donna ridiculed for her readings before the children were found precisely as she had said. Even by the family, she did the many free readings. When the affidavit was released and revealed details that Donna had been claiming, can you imagine how validated she must've felt? Even though she was tormented. She remained positive. We need her in this world, and we need more like her in this world. She's convinced me. Seeing is believing.

Testimonial #4

From Lauren - MrsMakawimaxton@yahoo.com

My journey of, shall we say, "Enlightenment" began the day the kids were found in Chad Daybell's yard. I had come across Donna's psychic reading of the kids back in April or May 2020. It was so disturbing to me I had to turn it off. I couldn't picture those kids could be killed by their own mother, let alone in such a nightmarish grizzly way.

Her video was frightening that I turned it off, but I had made it far enough in the video to know the important things about the yard, Tylee's death & dismemberment, etc. June 09th, 2020, I saw a live feed of the authorities at Daybells yard. My husband was saying, "They're going to find bodies there" I said, "What? Really you think so??" And sure enough, news had broken that a relative had received a phone call from a victim advocate, and they had indeed found human remains. As the day progressed, we learned that Tylee's body was dealt with in an egregious way, etc. That night I remember thinking back to Donna's videos going, OMG, everything she said is what I saw in that yard. In a hurry, I searched and found her video reading.

It picked up right where I had left off. My jaw was on the floor. For days I couldn't stop talking about it.

Then when the probable cause affidavit came out about ten or so days after the kids were found, I remember reading through it and knowing I needed to start informing people of Donna. This was the biggest news that no YouTube creators were even addressing. It was shocking to think that she could see that accurate and not even a mention of her from any of the YouTube creators who influenced and power to inform the masses.

I knew that had to change. Not only had she hugely earned my respect, but she also earned all our listening ears as being a resource for the missing.

That's what began my journey on YouTube. It was to tell people about how Donna nailed this case and to compare what she had seen in her readings to what was disclosed in the probable cause affidavit.

I'm forever grateful to Donna for turning me from skeptic to believer. She shifted my thinking and belief system in many ways. I never imagined I would be waiting with bated breath for Donna to do readings on missing person cases, but I do now. She is all we have when it comes to better understanding the details of these murder cases. She also gives people closure about their loved ones' death. She does so so much to help people. It is just incredible! She is an asset and has forever proven herself, in my opinion. We are all here because our minds have been blown.

Testimonial #5

From: Rose Reeder, rosereeder1@gmail.com

To whom this may concern. My name is Rose. I live in a small town in Idaho, just a short distance to Rexburg. When the Chad and Lori case happened here, I felt a sense of wanting to know what happened to these children. I do not follow mediums other than watching the lady on TV. I started following this case, and one day, something just said check out the mediums. Then I found Donna. I knew I felt she was so right. I never really was sure about the spiritual thing until I started following Donna; she has totally made me believe our spirits live on and we do see the people we love again, amen. I spent many days, my husband and me trying to look on maps, drive around in our car to areas and look for clues, and find places that would be like what the spirits were telling her. I believed that Tylee said they would be found, so I decided to wait and see if Donna's spiritual visit was the story of Tylee JJ and Charles. I had chatted with Donna many times during this search for the children. Many people believed, and we were all looking. So, I just followed the tips of the story unfolding, seeing Donna's reading long before it all started coming to a head.

Then the day came they were found just as she said they would be. And oh my gosh, everything Donna had been given visions of it was all there how the children died. I feel it was exactly as she described the rocks, the only tree next to a pond which could very well be a lake, and the house the area. The rivers go around Chad's house. The trapper in her visit. I took pictures myself of the sign just barely down from Chad's house, Trapper Lane. I feel so blessed to have the pleasure of what I think is a special gifted person. I can't imagine the sadness and pain of having to see this. I feel if they were here, they would tell it just like Donna did; they did through her so sad, but feeling no one believes you or maybe they do their religion doesn't so that would make them stand out you can't do that in their group you will be shunned. I believe now, thanks to Donna. Now I am not afraid to die just will be saddened by leaving the ones I love but knowing I will see them again makes me smile. Thank you, Donna. You are truly amazing. Sign A true believer Rose.

The audio is attached. This is a pretty accurate transcription. My resume is attached.

This is from a psychic perspective. Psychic is about 10% of the strength of the evidential mediumship that I do. Unfortunately, I do not have access to a friend or loved one of any of the victims. If you know of one willing to have an evidential mediumship reading where the loved one actually connects with me I can give you up to 98% accuracy.

I have no idea if the following is correct, now would I put my reputation on it, as what my specialty is trance/evidential mediumship.

However, because of the dire circumstances I decided to do this last night. Prior to this I read only one article and that I skimmed.

During the reading at some point I was shown a man I believe was the "brother"? Not sure, but he showed me how he died, I told them I would look in the papers after this session and if that was how he really died I would go ahead and send the whole thing in.

Screenshot 13 of 18 - Letter to LE - From Rev. Donna Seraphina - Jan 31, 2020

...scope of connecting one the main things over and helps and is planning the road through the process. We cannot breathe, inside me and supports right at the doorway for the body's bedroom, it feels like there is a bunkbed and the comforters are mostly navy blue. And I think that is why they do that with the black plastic all over the boy because it kind of started out that way, which would mean total premeditation.]

And then it feels like the girls body is over, at the area inside the door, just in the living room but where it borders the kitchen, in an area where you could look out a window

If feels like he dropped in the middle of the lake some of the instruments he used during this whole little scene, it feels like he is out on the middle of the lake in the (hear audio) dumps some of these tools he brings in a blue tarp (hacksaw, meatcleaver etc), it feels like, he may have kept his axe, he may have had an attachment to one of these tools so he did not want to dump it, so it may be on the wall in that garage/shed/hobby shop (hear audio)

I guess the fear is if I say to much it will dwindle in importance where there these bodies are

I hate to say these kids are dead, psychic is not the same as full on mediumship, which is what I do.

Psychic may be a poof of air and maybe the kids are playing at their grandma somewhere, that is what I hope,

But I am seeing all this, and that lake and that boulder, and please do not think I am a lousy medium if I am wrong because psychic is 10% as strong as mediumship, this is psychic for sure, and I do not believe I connected to the girl.

And again they are showing the boulder so that is going to be your landmark.

If you have any close friends or relatives willing to do a reading and ask for like a grandparent, anyone in the family, it really is just. I don't know if you can do full on mediumship without, but I cannot be 100% sure when it is this kind of case. I don't even know what the accuracy rate would be doing just for psychic and I hope I am wrong, I hope I am wrong.

I am seeing sunshine or light. I felt the energy, so that is it, they want me to emphasize the boulder, easy to put the boat behind it and easy to tie up there to not be bothered by the river current.

I hope this phone is still recording, yep, look likes it is , I am asking to connect with the girl, that is missing, or the boy, Okay so the boy shows me he is playing with something, current or past, playing with some, blocks made out of stuffed animal material, or soft blocks made of felt, he heard a loud bang, that startled him and he turned around, it feels like the daughter was shot right there when you come in front door about ten feet, like right in front of the kitchen, like I don't know why someone would do a murder just like that right there where there would be a big mess.
had told Charles to go away bc I did not know who he was but he refused so I was mixing victims, this is about Charles
The boy comes out, the mother comes to him (more on audio) see now I am getting blunt force trauma to the head, maybe they did not die the same way, I do not know who is getting hit in the head, I think he is smashing her skull with the but of an axe, he wants to crush it so no one can recognize it, and so the birds take it away and stuff, and then I am feeling like the mom going, "its okay" and she takes a giant plastic bag and puts it over his head and starts wrapping something around his neck, like ductape or something and the man runs over and helps and is pinching his nose through the plastic so he cannot breathe, it feels like this happens right at the doorway of the bodys bedroom, it feels like there is a bunkbed and the comforters are mostly navy blue. And I think that is why they do that with the black plastic all over the boy because it kind of started out that way, which would mean total premeditation.]

Something really went flying down a cliff but it did not feel like he was on it anymore (more on audio symbolism, charades, one image after another and trying to interpret)
But I feel like I have the adult male here, he is looking out a window, he is drinking coffee, looking out his kitchen window and a car pulls up, Being shown Alex Cox waiting to ambush
I am seeing a husky dog and that toboggan again, like lets tie a husky dog by a harness to the toboggan, I think the man is showing me
The man is standing at a kitchen sink, they have the kind of curtains that go up to your face level, and then at the top they have another little curtain that is about six inches long, curtain, crème or pale yellow that I am seeing, he is holding a cup of coffee, the color of the cup is a dull red like either a clay red or rust brown or somewhere in there, remember it could be just a cup of coffee, a car pulls in, he must have been expecting the car, whoever is going in the car has a rifle, maybe they are telling me this so after this I will look in the paper and see if it is true, so I will know if I am being faked out or something, the man in the car has a rifle, it feels to me like he thinks they are going hunting and they will be able to shoot something, at some point he tells the guy to kneel down and just shoots him, I think he wanted him to crouch down so that the guy could not realize what he was doing and fight over the rifle, could be a shotgun too, cant tell, it is definitely long, not like a handgun, I feel sick to my stomach, I felt like I fall, I feel like I am covering my face with my hands, almost like my fingertips are touching my forehead, I am laying on my side, I feel sick to my stomach, (58:00), so if this guy died of a drug overdose than we will know this is all fake, see this is the thing, there is trickster spirits, so maybe the person could come through, and even part of it could come through, it is a problem trying to do this without a confirming person which is a loved one of the missing person,
So what I am doing now is see this wife, the wife of the stepfather who helped murder these children or dispose of their bodies or whatever, IF THIS LADY, THIS LADY IS NO VICTIM, this mother of these kids, she may even be the one that killed them (I ask spirit, hear audio).
I hope this phone is still recording, yep, look likes it is , I am asking to connect with the girl, that is missing, or the boy, Okay so the boy shows me he is playing with something, current or past, playing with some, blocks made out of stuffed animal material, or soft blocks made of felt, he heard a loud bang, that startled him and he turned around, it feels like the daughter was shot right there when you come in front door about ten feet, like right in front of the kitchen, like I don't know why someone would do a murder just like that right there where there would be a big mess,

I feel the presence of spirit.

And it could be the adult male that comes through, or the boy, see, I don't know if it is them showing me to warn me, or ... sometimes it sticks with you so I don't know.

I actually feel like the woman likes killing, the mother, I feel like she likes killing, and I feel like if they roasted her leg, I feel like them making sandwiches out of the meat, if this is all real, look in the freezer, look in any packages of meat, (audio more), look for frozen meat, goes on, so gross (48 minutes)

It feels like in this house, the kitchen has a view of the lake, See Real Estate Photos Daybell Property shows what looks like a lake

Somehow I feel that these two have access to the lakehouse

But they are just showing me, they are still showing me the little boy wrapped in black plastic up behind the boulder, I guess that is the most important thing, that is where their body's are. I keep hearing something about 20 feet

Hopefully they are alive at their grandmothers house, and hopefully this is just a trickier spirit giving me wrong information

I am going to see for a minute if there is anything else, like if the brother would like to step forward, like maybe one of the other ones who got murdered, was there her brother and his wife? Or her brother? Who did her brother kill? Who knows?

Anyways (asking for him) I feel like there is an adult male with me, I feel like in a way, I am seeing a Malibu Ken doll, it could be surfing or snowboarding, almost not like either, but almost like riding one of those things, I am just seeing it going straight down the side of a cliff.

51:15 t the time I did not know who Charles Vallow was Something really went flying down a cliff but it did not feel like he was on it anymore (more on audio symbolism, charades, one image after another and trying to interpret)

I feel like there is a group of men again by the bolder, right where they pulled up to go, they want me to come there again, un now it feels like he took the rest of the body pieces, like in a bag, and his idea this time is to just scatter them all over, to just put them under bushes, and here and there so the animals will just eat them, he feels like he made them small enough so the animals will just get them and people wont recognize what they are, he got pretty gruesome, he might have even used a sledge hammer to break some bones to make them unrecognizable,

But it is like this, up in, if you find the boy body and it is where I say, then when you go up a little and go up in this cluster, you are walking in the trees in the middle of this, a bunch of cluster of bushes, where he buried the limbs, they go back to there, so, I don't know if they go back or they did it all at once, (getting a little chill), did he go back there on more than one occasion to bury these childrens bodies (BIG CHILL - affirmation from spirit)

The upriver might be wider, it is almost like I am upriver, but I see out the other side it might get wider after this narrower part,

I am hoping I am wrong, I hope she is alive, it would be way better to (be wrong) and have someone alive (more explanation - going on again about preferring mediumship)

It feels like the girl is crying. She cannot believe, "I cannot believe my mom would do that to me" she said I was her best friend. That might not be right. She might be the daughter of the guy, is this girl the daughter of the man, of the daughter of the woman ( am asking spirit questions)

I see the girl again, I feel like maybe she bites her nails or something. She feels to me like anxiety, like I don't know if the anxiety is about family stuff or social stuff or what, I don't know, I just feel like she is biting her nails. She is crying, she is really crying. She just cannot believe her mom would do this to her.

She acted like emotionally, I don't even know if it is a traumatic, maybe my spirit guides are showing me how traumatic it is to see if I have the nerve to go further, but I will wait for a couple of minutes and see,

I feel the presence of spirit.

And it could be the adult male that comes through, or the boy, see, I don't know if it is them showing me to warn me, or ... sometimes it sticks with you so I don't know.

Letter to LE January 31, 2020 from Rev. Donna Seraphina (Lambert) - Screenshot 8 of 8

They will show me the order they want, they might go back to something, I feel like there is a front porch area, but is not a raised up porch, they are showing me, I cannot be 100% sure it is attached to the house on the lake but I feel like it is, and I feel like it is not a porch that is raised up, it is more like flat, like brick or concrete, it might have like a foot high brick border around to give it a little patio feeling, and it might be a couple chairs.

I almost feel like the house may have been built between the 50s and 70s. It feels like it was a one story, and possibly like somebody like somebody added a second story and it may even still have two colors of paint, if the bottom story has one color and perhaps they left the top like stained wood BUT NOT SURE, like don't throw the whole thing away, because images may be from what is in my consciousness, (ie a summer house I have been at)(more explanations on audio)

But one thing about that detached garage, even if you saw a house like that and you know it is the house, and one of these characters somehow related, or grew up there, or had a little four year old there, or even there was a little ghost 4 year old (eg), there could even be an attached garage and or carport, there is definitely this little outbuilding - maybe this thing that looks like a garage was built to be a workshop because it has a workbench on all three sides, so that I know is not just a picture from my mind, that I know is an important element

So with this type of images is it important to recognize the importance of something they emphasize over and over and over,

It feels like he used a hacksaw part of the time and dismembered his daughter, his stepdaughter, or whatever relationship, I see him using a hacksaw and a meat cleaver, it sounds like he was trying and using a few different things in chopping this body up,

So they showed where they put those parts

Okay now, they are showing me the abdominal part of a body with all the organs coming out, feels like there is a drain on the floor, it is something important, some little piece of jewelry or little sweater pin, looks gold to me, like a little angel thing or something may have went in the drain with some blood too

(complaining about psychic instead of mediumship - could be a jokester spirit, important to do these readings with a loved one, because then the spirit can keep telling me evidence to verify who they are so I know I have a legitimate connection. This way I cannot verify the legitimacy of this psychic information)

I feel like there is a group of men again by the boiler, right where they pulled up to go, they want me to come there again, un now it feels like he took the rest of the body pieces, like in a bag, and his idea this time is to just scatter them all over, to just put them under bushes, and here and there so the animals will just eat them, he feels like he made them small enough so the animals will just get them and people wont recognize what they are, he got pretty gruesome, he might have even used a sledge

And then as the slope kinda flattens, a little, just gradually, kind of a little bit of flatness, it is right about there right before it starts going up again, the body is just to the left of the path there, maybe it is not a man made path, but it feels like a little of a path, but it feels like it wont be that hard to walk through there,

Okay, it feels like it starts going up again, I feel like this is where they might have come back like the next day or whatever, when they got the girls cut up body, I don't feel like they cut up the boys body, but okay so cut up body, a little past where they buried the boy, a little past where they buried the boy, there might be some ferns or something, I feel like there is trees, and then there is some ferns, or bushes or some kind of bushes I do not recognize, but a cluster of bushes, like where they brought the body parts of the girl, and I don't know if they brought all the body parts or if they are going to put them other places, because I am only see the one package, that has like her two arms which were each cut, like the elbow and the shoulder and the two pieces of one leg, like they are literally showing me putting this leg on this thing like a rotisserie thing, like an outdoor thing that you might roast a pig on, and eating it like they don't even care, and it makes me wonder like "why am I seeing this". Like, feel free to discount it, but they showed me again.

So I will keep going. (My dogwalker returns)(more explanations)

So I feel like this is more psychic rather than connecting with the actual spirit (which is like 10x a strong, in mediumship we KNOW, there would be no doubt)

So, we are confirming this girls body is cut up. We are confirming it is back past where they will find the boys body, with the ropes every foot around his body, and then you go up a little slope where it just flattens out slightly, not too much, off to the right, in the middle of the trees, there looks like a thicket of ferns or bushes, go towards the center of that, it is like right where he buried the leg, like if you find one leg and two arms, I am telling you now that they did eat that other leg, I am not kidding.

I am just going to blank again, I am seeing the girl again, so this is going to be about the girl, it feels like they just didn't want kids, to like hamper up their life or whatever, obviously feels like the mother of her is like a sociopath, like she just doesn't have feelings, like she is slightly amused by somebody elses weakness.

They will show me the order they want, they might go back to something, I feel like there is a front porch area, but is not a raised up porch, they are showing me, I cannot be 100% sure it is attached to the house on the lake but I feel like it is, and I feel like it is not a porch that is raised up, it is more like flat, like brick or concrete, it might have like a foot high brick border around to give it a little patio feeling, and it might be a couple chairs.

I am seeing a lake, what I am seeing is so gross that I cannot say it because it just cannot be true, and if I put something up I am going to delete this because it is just sickening... (16:45 phone audio) I see them starting a fire and roasting, like where you could conceivably roast a pig there, it feels like they are roasting a leg, like the leg of the girl, I swear to God, I cant, it is hard for me to believe how this could be happening in my mind, so its like I cannot believe anybody would do that, it is so unreal and it is burning the front of my forehead too, and so, I am just going to say a prayer (says prayer on audio) It is unspeakable horror, I feel like he chopped her leg off. I feel like with the girl he is chopping her body up like a butcher would, like with a meat cleaver, first I saw something else (possible hacksaw), I don't know what he using to take her leg off, bigger than a meat cleaver, than using a meat cleaver on her knee, like there is a building there, like a garage or workshop, a building not connected to the little house, (more on audio), keep an open mind, the garage not connected to the main house (although main house may have a garage, someone may have built this for boat house or workshop), the outside I see has wood trim boards (you would recognize it right away, like 1x2inch boards evenly spaced and painted same color as garage as decoration), it is not really meant to park cars in, like it has workbench on three sides of it, and it feels like he has daughters body on that workbench, and he has the girl's body there and he is chopping it up and he has plastic there but it seems like there would be so much blood evidence there, you know like over the floor or the cracks at the end it

The plastic I am seeing with her is clear plastic, so why would he have two different kinds of plastic, who the heck knows. So with her he is trying to do something different, these people are sick.

I feel like, "for now I am going to put these pieces of body parts in the deep freezer", and he puts them in there. I don't know if he is in the garage anymore though, he could be in like the house, in like a pantry, or this hallway that leads to the kitchen from the outside there might be one of these deep freezers, it is somewhere though, I cannot even be 100% sure it is at that location but the blood would be because that is where he chopped her up

Okay, they are showing me a search team going in this area like past the boulder like you would be able to find that not to hard, and you are walking, like now there is four or five men wearing uniforms, so you are walking up, it feels like a slight slope, may be more than a slight slope, going up the embankment or the edge, there is trees, like almost right away, sometimes of the year the trees are closer to the river as the river goes up in down, so I am with this group of men and we are walking up to look for the body. The one in black plastic with the ropes, which I believe is the boy is not that far in, maybe 50 feet, maybe, when I see it visually, I would guess that is only 30 feet but it is kind of up a slope or something,

And then as the slope kinda flattens, a little, just gradually, kind of a little bit of flatness, it is right about there right before it starts going up again, the body is just to the left of the path there, maybe it is not a man made path, but it feels like a little of a path, but it feels like it wont be that hard to walk through there,

Resumes psychic impression

Where we are is someone's childhood home, it was somebody's childhood home, I feel like whose childhood home it was is a little brunette girl, and she, so I don't think, so I feel like the little girl who played there as a child was a brunette, and she was cute, so cute, she looks about 4 and she looks like she has brunette hair and she skips around the property and she just plays there, I don't see the house, I just feel like it is one of these modest like summer homes or whatever, summer home or summer cabin, so the little girl plays there, and straight across the inlet like where the neck of the lake is, okay, than you are looking upriver I believe, and there may be a mountain there in the distance (faint), or else they are just showing me a mountain so that I will know the direction of the water is coming towards me, with mediumship it is really interpretation because that is where people can be wrong, so it may mean something different to somebody listening to this, if you listen to the recording you may interpret the images differently (explanation)

Okay so they are pointing me again, and there is kind of a marker, because on the right side of the river is a boulder, and it is probably at least waist high, and it could be bigger, (explanation on tape), also what they do is put pictures in my mind like a reference library (etc refer to audio).

I know there is more about this lake because they still have me there, okay because now they have me back here at this house, this piece of property that, I don't even see a house, I just believe there is one behind me, or even a cabin or something, but I don't turn around and see it, because they direct that, they still have me looking at that direction, at the neck of this lake...and I am sure most lakes come up from the ground, but it does not matter to me, because I just have to say what I see...because it might mean something to somebody else (refer to audio goes on more detail and explanations as to how things might be being seen-be open minded for your own interpretations) But there is more about this lake and we are back at the house now

I am seeing a lake, what I am seeing is so gross that I cannot say it because it just cannot be true, and if I put something up I am going to delete this because it is just sickening... And they are directing my attention to there for reasons unknown to me. If you flew a helicopter over there and went about 20 feet up the river, upriver I am feeling like saying, and I don't want to be too cocky about saying, "20 feet" because it could be like 75 feet or something, so I don't want my brain to start racing. I have to slow down, whatever is happening here, so oh uh, you will find a body there, I am seeing a boulder right around there, and if you went just past the boulder and if you go in, I feel like there is woods there that are relatively close to the water, oh because it depends on how high the river is (also be aware re the boulder under water if river is very high) Okay because I was seeing the big trees right next to the water and then I was seeing the big trees with sand.

And so if you kind of went behind this big boulder and went up into the woods.

I am seeing, um, I will tell you what I am seeing, but I hope it is wrong, but anyways I hope it is wrong, I am just going to see it even though I might be stupid,

Okay, what I am seeing is a man and a woman and they are carrying one person, they are carrying one person wrapped in a black, um, its black plastic, and it has ropes tied around it, (on the outside of the plastic) like rope tied around the neck, and rope tied around where the arms would be, like they tied a rope like every foot and a half, but they are tying it... I don't know, it just seems like their burial way, what they are doing, and it feels like the man is digging pretty hard and then covering, it feels like it was the boy that was buried there.

Oh, the 20 feet might be 20 feet in. so if you look up that river and you see the big boulder and that might be because it might be easy to dock their boat there, like so the river current (protected against). It looks like a small boat, an aluminum one, that has a couple benches, its not a boat that has bathrooms or anything it is like a ten foot long aluminum boat. Might have a little motor, but the type of little aluminum fishing boat that you might use to go fishing on a lake or river. You know, when the lake is your second home that type of thing, those little aluminum fishing boats, but that little fishing boat might be green, like army green or like camouflage or something like that.

At 10:15 - I AM UNSURE IF IT STOPPED RECORDING - COMPARE HERE WITH AUDIOR RECORDER

I am seeing something to do with sled dogs but it might just be a tobagaan set up with a couple neighborhood dogs, or maybe they are really training them for that I don't know. But this is what I am seeing and it is not a big giant thing like in Alaska and it almost looks more like a tobagaan like if you tied your malamute or husky to your tobagaan and pretended you were on one of those things where they have all the dogs

NEW PICTURE: Okay I am getting the feeling of running around. It is a lake, a very beautiful lake. It does look like the pacific Northwest with the big giant trees I feel like, but I don't see, I feel like there is a cabin behind me. The sound of childrens laughter there, of being a very young girl and playing there. I am not saying it is her, I am NOT saying this is her, I am not saying or claiming that this is this girl that is missing, I don't want to do that, I just want to keep giving what I am getting and then we will see what happens, because I usually do not do this without a sitter to confirm things but I don't have one so I am just going to do it anyway... so here we are still, so when they continue with a picture... that means there is more to it they want me to see... Off into the distance, So from where I am on this property where it feels like there would be a summer house there or like a smaller house, it could even be a decent home but it is the type of place where people have second homes, where they take their kids for the summer and stuff...it has that kind of feeling, I am not saying that is what it is, I am just saying it is the feeling, that is the vibe of the place. It is very peaceful, very peaceful

But where I am directed, if you look straight across from there, down to where there might be an opening, that either feeds the river or where the river goes away in the river or where the river kind of goes away, I kind of get the feeling that it feeds the river there, like a bottleneck, it looks like the lake is round and then it looks like a bottleneck, like if you drew the lake, but I feel like it is leading into the lake like a water stream, like from the mountains when the snow melts and stuff, but I don't know for sure, but I feel like that

So here is a transcript. However, to actually do it justice you must listen to the recording. The reason for that is the psychic impressions are just visions I am trying to interpret. If you listen to the recording you may know right away what I am attempting to convey and where the location is, but if you only read it you are simply reading my interpretation of what I saw.

Finally, I could see the audio recorder I normally use was low on battery (and only lasted the first 30 minutes). I used the audio recorder on my phone as a backup and I am hoping that recorded the whole time, I am trying to transfer that recording to my "google drive" as we speak.

The audio is attached. This is a pretty accurate transcription. My resume is attached.

This is from a psychic perspective. Psychic is about 10% of the strength of the evidential mediumship that I do. Unfortunately, I do not have access to a friend or loved one of any of the victims. If you know of one willing to have an evidential mediumship reading where the loved one actually connects with me I can give you up to 98% accuracy.

I have no idea if the following is correct, now would I put my reputation on it, as what my specialty is trance/evidential mediumship.

However, because of the dire circumstances I decided to do this last night. Prior to this I read only one article and that I skimmed.

During the reading at some point I was shown a man I believe was the "brother"? Not sure, but he showed me how he died, I told them I would look in the papers after this session and if that was how he really died I would go ahead and send the whole thing in.

So here is a transcript. However, to actually do it justice you must listen to the recording. The reason for that is the psychic impressions are just visions I am trying to interpret. If you listen to the recording you may know right away what I am attempting to convey and where the location is, but if you only read it you are simply reading my interpretation of what I saw.
